This first ExecCon meeting of the term is dedicated to the memory of Josh's couch. May its remnants live on in the rooms of future Bakerites. Now let's start this term out with a BANG!

Motion to approve last year's minutes (Tom, Shambhavi)

Announcements:

- 1) BANG! Tony would like to welcome everyone back to Baker and hopes that you all have had a kickin' summer. Welcome for the first time to all our new freshmen and transfers! Baker should be quite a happening place this year.
- 2) Our secretary (me) has gotten a new notebook to record minutes! Hopefully, this one may be able to live up to the infamous Minutes notebook started by Timothy Soberland two years ago.
- 3) Special thanks to Jen and Tyler (our VPROs) for a super fun Orientation/REX. We were able to recruit a good batch of freshmen this year. They would also like to thank the rest of ExecCon as well as all of the other early return helpers for helping out.
- 4) Our Vice Presidents of Recruitment and Orientation decided not to thank much of the rest of Dormcom and certain other key individuals for taking advantage of Baker's hospitality.
- 5) Do not use the alarmed Emergency Exit (except in the case of a real emergency) at the bottom of the far west stairwell or you will be fined! Julius does not like waking up to that sound in the middle of the night, and he will find you...
- 6) ExecCon would like to welcome our first freshmen of the year to the meeting! Special thanks to the girls from 501, Diana, Kate, and Cate, for coming to the meeting. Wow... two K/Cates in one room. I hear they did the same thing with a couple of Joys. What's this world coming to?
- 7) Postering will not be tolerated in non-postering areas. There are designated general postering areas in the lobby that any MIT group may use, but the halls of Baker may only be postered for exclusively Baker events. You may poster anything you'd like on your own door, but nowhere else. Postering inside of the elevator, on glass, and stapled to the wood are strictly prohibited. Know the rules.
- 8) Lara and Shambhavi have finally gotten new balls... so we can all play ping-pong now! Sign ups for IM sports will start soon... keep an ear out.
- 9) Enjoy your new Baker glassware from Social! If you weren't in your room tonight to receive it, feel free to stop by 618 to pick up your Pilsner glass.
- 10) The TNKs for this term have been set! These are Thursday night events hosted by the floor tutors. The first of these will be on September 25 and will be hosted by Julius and LaShanda. Everyone should dress up like Julius for this TNKorley! Other TNKs will occur on Oct 6, 23, Nov 6, 20, and Dec 4. In addition, a non-TNK tutor sponsored event will be held on Oct 16.
- 11) Baker has purchased a new 65 inch bigscreen TV. Ideas to dispose of the old broken bigscreen include a TV Drop and a TV bash. Well... Baker hasn't had a Piano Drop for about 6 years now... so stay tuned to find out what gets decided.
- 12) Stored fridges must be out of the TV room by Sept 4. If you don't want yours auctioned off, I'd suggest picking it up as soon as possible. We need to make room for the new TV!
- 13) Thanks to Social for throwing a great Allan Party along with a great summer! I feel like I've gotten to know everyone that much better now.
- 14) So far, the Trunkroom has collected $87 in fines, which will go towards Social's budget for the new term. More are expected to be collected.
- 15) If you still don't have a picture in the Baker Picture Book, stop by 418 to have one taken whenever you can. Matthew found his camera again, and over one third of you are now in the Picture Book. Go to <http://www.mit.edu/~wmatthew/Baker-Picture-Book/main.html> to check it out! Also, Baker rounds could occur at any minute, so be prepared to receive free food and perhaps even have your picture taken at any minute.
- 16) Baker Rush shirts are still available. Go to room 418 to purchase one for $5. Oh yeahhh!
- 17) If anyone has any furniture or belongings outside your room, it is recommended that you either put them into your room or at least put a note on them claiming them as yours. The house manager reserves the right to dispose of unclaimed belongings in the hallways and lounges.
- 18) Holiday Party is little more than three months away! Get a date!
- 19) Athlete of the Week: Social (Tom and Martijn) for jumping off the Harvard bridge, setting off a fire alarm with fog, throwing a kickin' 9-hour July 4th, and for general coolness and sexiness.

Old Business:

(none)

New Business:

- 1) Baker needs a new Judcomm chair, a new Frep, and several new Judcomm committee members. Any upperclassman interested in making Baker a more friendly, hospitable, and conflict-free place to live, or if you just enjoy laying down the law, then run for Judcomm chair! Please see Tony (Room 638) as soon as possible to pick up a petition. We will be having butteries at the House Meeting next Monday, and the Judcomm Chair election will be the next day. Freshmen should also start thinking about running for Frep, the Freshman Representative on ExecCon. Any freshman interested in taking part in the dorm government should run. Elections for Frep and for the remaining members of Judcomm will probably be at the following House Meeting (Oct. 6th).
 - 2) The Budget Meeting for the term will be on Sunday, so that the proposed budget can be approved at the House Meeting on Monday. Anyone who wants a say in this term's budget should come to those meetings.
 - 3) Baker's Social Policies will be explained soon. We will soon let you know which parties need to be registered, what our alcohol policy is, and everything else. What we can say now is that no non-Baker Rush events will be allowed to be held in Baker, as decided last term. It is also to the discretion of ExecCon and JudComm members, as well as GRTs, House Masters, and security guards, to break up any party as we see fit.
 - 4) Nicole and Jaimie have proposed changes to the Spring Rooming Lottery. These changes will be discussed and voted on in the future.
 - 5) From now on, ExecCon meetings will be every Sunday night at 10pm, unless there are no classes the following day, in which case stay tuned for an email. House Meetings will always be held the first Monday of each month at 10pm in Baker Dining. Everyone living in Baker should come to House meetings.
Anyone is also welcome to come to ExecCon meetings (including freshmen!). We hope to be seeing you there soon.

Appropriations:

Move to adjourn (Lara).

Next ExecCon Meeting -- Sunday, Sept 7th, 10pm, First Central Lounge. (BUDGET MEETING!!!)
First House Meeting- Monday, Sept 8th, 10pm, Baker Dining.

Everyone should see the masterpiece of a movie that Etan created. It's a chilling tale of mistrust and romance. I give it two thumbs up. You can view it at: http://mm.dfilm.com/mm2s/mm_route.php?id=1267864

Why read your Baker minutes you ask? Well, not only does it keep you informed on happenings in Baker, but it's a great way to wind down after a stressful day. The Baker minutes teach us about love and respect for each other, not about the worst four-letter word of all... "hate." When you delete the minutes without reading them, you're learning about hate. "Hate" is a four-letter word. So is "love." Which do you want to learn about?
The More You Know...

Motion to approve last year's minutes (Tyler, Shambhavi)

Announcements:

- 1) There are new freshmen at the meeting! Among them include Sean from Texas, now in 101. He's no good at pop quizzes about ice cream. Also in attendance were 3/4 of 646, including Carrie from Michigan and another from Seattle. Chandra from 643 claimed to not be a freshman. It was great to have them all!
 - 2) Be sure to recycle things! The large bins in Baker are for plastics 1 through 6, and the smaller bins are for paper. Why throw things out when you could help protect our Mother Earth?
 - 3) Play IM sports and eat carrots!
 - 4) Don't bring or allow frat or other non-Baker people into Baker to steal our ice. The ice in the ice machine is for Bakerites only. If anyone else wants this ice, they can pay $100 per cube.
 - 5) Three months until Holiday Party! Get a date!
 - 6) We'd like to remind everyone that Baker has an Open Door Policy. Open doors encourage socialness. It's a great way to meet your fellow Bakerites!
 - 7) President Tony received a hand-delivered hard copy e-mail about the Baker Technique photo. All Bakerites should show up on the yet-to-be-determined September date so that we can all be in the yearbook with Baker!
 - 8) It turns out that spreading a rumor about a stolen laptop is a good way to stall an ExecCon meeting. ExecCon gets an A in locking down Baker.
 - 9) Athlete of the Week: ExecCon for laying down the law and stopping the bad guys. With us on alert, Baker thefts will be a thing of the past...

Old Business:

- 1) Judcomm Chair elections will be Tuesday, following their speeches at the House Meeting Monday night. For interested freshmen wanting to become Frep and interested upperclassmen wanting to be on the Judcomm Committee, petitions will be out soon. Their election will be after the next House Meeting, tentatively on October 6.
 - 2) The Social Calendar will be out next week. Baker's social policies will be explained on this.
 - 3) Changes to the Spring Rooming Lottery will be discussed at a later date.

New Business:

- 1) Run for Recycling Chair and help save our environment! E-mail Tony <weinbeck@mit.edu> soon before the mad rush of candidates.
 - 2) The budget was proposed and approved in a 6-0 vote. Come to the House Meeting Monday to vote on it with the rest of Baker!

This is Baker. Don't let it die.

Motion to Approve Last Meeting's Minutes (Jennifer, Martijn)

Announcements:

- 1) Play IM sports! The athletic chairs didn't threaten us this time, so we're safe for now.
 - 2) Three months left until Holiday Party! Get a date!
 - 3) Tony unthinks Chris, Tyler, and Jeff for soaking him.
 - 4) Baker ice is for Bakerites only, not for frats to steal. The going rate for others to purchase this ice is $100/cube.
 - 5) The Social Calendar will be out soon. Talk to Tom or Martijn before throwing a party; you may get funding. No non-Baker parties will be hosted in Baker.
 - 6) Run for recycling chair and keep Baker environmentally friendly! Email Tony <weinbeck@mit.edu> for information.
 - 7) Architecture tours of Baker will be given by Steve Form and Riva Bakal. Baker is famous for its architecture, so people come from all over to see it and may ask to look in your room. These people should be staying on the tours though, not wandering.
 - 8) From now on, the trunkroom will be open by appointment only. Talk to Matthew or Riva to make an appointment.
 - 9) More Rush shirts are left, as well as other Baker shirts and glassware. All will be available to buy during future Baker Rounds.
 - 10) Do not steal paper from Bricks! However, if you do "find" extra paper for Bricks, you can leave it with Dan Shultz in 619, and he'll keep it from being stolen.

Old Business:

New Business:

- 1) Judcomm Chair Butteries! Let's take a look at our candidates, shall we?
Chandra - She'll keep Baker fun and social with her leadership skills. She claims to be able to be an impartial mediator, as demonstrated by her choosing Pepsi over Coke, yet Diet Coke over Diet Pepsi. She still needs to look up the fines.
Leslie - She wants to get involved and be impartial. She chose Coke over Pepsi and soda over pop, but she didn't look up the fines as she had been previously advised to do.
Anjum - She's a transfer who previously served on Macgregor's Judcomm, so she's prepared. She suggests that we all read the guidelines, which she claims state that Judcomm members cannot be soaked. She also suggests that we take our problems first to Judcomm, and she'll scare people into obeying while wearing her karate-type outfit. She has an extensive knowledge of the fines, promises awesome butteries, and chose Coke.
Laura - She's planning the Waller Regime, with no weapons of mass destruction. She's proud to be Canadian and chose Coke. Her knowledge includes the various fines and when they're enforced.
 - 2) We explained the budget to everyone and voted on it. The budget was approved 44 yay - 1 nay - 0 abstain. The budget is approved!

Move to adjourn (Matthew)

Next ExecCon Meeting -- Sunday, September 14, 10pm, 4th West.

Are you a Bakerite or a Baker-wrong?

Motion to approve last year's minutes (Tom, Martijn)

Announcements:

- 1) Look for the Social Calendar in your mailboxes on Monday! Also, get ready for a BBQ on Saturday.
 - 2) ExecCon would like to thank Sean and Jared from 311 for allowing us to have our meeting in their room.
 - 3) Play IM sports! Sign ups are in the lobby, and the deadline for some sports are coming up soon. So sign up now!
 - 4) Congratulations to Laura Waller for being elected our new Judcomm chair!
 - 5) Congratulations to Jennifer Peng and Nikhil from 106 for becoming Baker's UA Senators. Congrats to all the other UA election winners from Baker as well: freshmen Ovid and Melvin from 201, Susan from 103, Elizabeth from 104, and seniors Christine and Dev. Come to think of it, we're all winners really.
 - 6) The Baker Dining Food Committee is starting back up for this term! Email Jeff <jfalkenb@mit.edu> (that's me) if you want a say in making Baker D a better place to eat.
 - 7) Tony got a real email this week about green dining, to make the residential dining programs more environmentally friendly. This task will most likely fall to the Recycling Chair, unless someone wants to take charge of this but not to be Recycling Chair.
 - 8) Holiday Party is in 2 months 3 weeks! Get a date!
 - 9) The Waller Regime commences now! Anyone who wants to break the rules around here will now have to deal with Laura!
 - 10) Athlete of the Week: Conan O'Brien for having a kickin' 10 year anniversary show, making this meeting faster than Noto's Mom.

Old Business:

- 1) Laura Waller is approved by ExecCon as our new Judcomm Chair in a unanimous vote. Hooray! Frep and Judcomm member elections will be held after the next House Meeting, on October 7. Freshmen interested in having a say in their dorm, as well as upperclassmen who'd like to be able to help keep everyone in line, should contact Tony <weinbeck@mit.edu> to get a petition.
 - 2) Changes to the Spring Rooming Lottery will be discussed at a later date.
 - 3) Contact Tony <weinbeck@mit.edu> if you'd like to be Baker's Recycling Chair.

New Business:

Appropriations:

Social:
$1552.55 Holiday Pary -> Holiday Party, Allan Party (Martijn, Matthew)
$66.84 R/F Parties -> R/F Parties (Martijn, Matthew)
VPIR:
$20.00 ExecCon Food -> ExecCon Food (Matthew, Shambhavi)
VPFS:
$17.34 TV Room -> TV Room (Jimmy, Shambhavi)

Move to adjourn (Jennifer).

Next ExecCon Meeting -- Sunday, Sept 21th, 10pm, Room 611.

Have you ever wondered who drives down your streets between 3:30 and 4:30AM every night? Well if you are up then, you may notice certain vans driving the same exact routes each night at the same times, continuously driving up and down each and every dead-end, cult-a-sac, and cut-through. These "Death Vans" have an agenda, and though it may not make any sense to you, they see it as the most important thing in the world. My advise to you if you see one? Don't follow it... that can only lead to trouble...

Announcements:

- 1) Congratulations to Noah Taylor and Anjum Sharma for becoming Co-Recycling Chairs and keeping Baker environmentally friendly! They may have something to say to us at the next House Meeting, so be there!
 - 2) Play IM sports or face the wrath of the Athletic Chairs!
 - 3) Only 75 days left until Holiday Party! Get a date!
 - 4) Freshmen should be looking in their mailboxes for Baker Trivia. It will be out soon!
 - 5) The first Happy Hour of the term is this Friday, so get ready to be happified.
 - 6) Don't take the batteries out of the remotes. It kind of defeats the purpose of the remote if you're using it to hit the buttons from a foot away.
 - 7) The theft of whiteboards and of other ornamentation from doors is considered vandalism and will be handled by the Waller Regime.
 - 8) Don't take the elevator less than floors unless there are extenuating circumstances preventing you from using the stairs.
 - 9) The BBQ was fun! Thanks to Social, their helpers, and everyone in attendance.
 - 10) Thanks to the freshmen from 611 for hosting the meeting.
 - 11) The Baker Camping Trip sign-ups will be up this week. Come pick apples and enjoy yourself with your fellow Bakerites!
 - 12) Email me <jfalkenb@mit.edu> if you'd like to join the Baker Dining Committee.
 - 13) Come to the TNKorley this Thursday night at 9pm in the 1st Central Lounge for some kickin' Karaoke!
 - 13) Athlete of the Week: Jimmy and his mom for streaking across the roof.

Old Business:

- 1) Run for Frep or Judcomm. Get a petition from Tony and return it before the House Meeting on October 7.
 - 2) Changes to the Spring Rooming Lottery have again been put off until later.
 - 3) Thank you Noah and Anjum for becoming the Recycling Chairs. Baker could use people like you.

New Business:

- 1) ExecCon, the House Masters, and the GRTs met with Danny Trujillo, Assistant Dean of Alcohol, last week. We discussed party registration as well as the alcohol policy at MIT. We've come up with various ideas, such as a subcommittee of us to create an internal registration process that complies with MIT policy. We discussed having optional alcohol training, instructing a few Bakerites on TIPS, and tried to figure out which parties to register. As it currently stands, we're not supposed to have alcohol in lounges due to MIT regulations.
 - 2) The Freshman Mixer is now scheduled for Monday September 29. Jennifer has been appointed to take charge of it, so we'll have more information later. We plan to have this as the culmination of Baker Trivia.
 - 3) Did somebody say Piano Drop? Well, it has been at least six years since the last one and we do have a broken piano and a broken TV, so it's about time. We're still looking into the logistics of this, so it may still be a long shot. There has even been talk of dropping the piano onto the TV, but TV disposal is difficult. We'll keep you posted.

Appropriations:

Social:
$490.07 BBQ -> BBQ (Martijn, Shambhavi)
$44.10 Special Stock -> Special Stock (Martijn, Shambhavi)

Move to adjourn (Matthew).

Next ExecCon Meeting -- Sunday, Sept 28th, 10pm, 1st West Lounge.

Motion to approve last year's minutes (Tom, Matthew)

Announcements:

- 1) Play IM sports! No one's gonna hurt you this time...
 - 2) ExecCon would like to congratulate the freshmen on successful studying for 8.01.
 - 3) The Freshman (& Transfer) Mixer will be on Monday (now in the past) at 10:30pm in Baker Dining. Come and meet other fun new Bakerites!
 - 4) Oktoberfest is coming up fast. Look out for dinner and festivities following!
 - 5) Holiday party is only a couple months away. Get a date!
 - 6) Lock your doors when you leave your room! Theft has gone up recently, and the Waller Regime is on the watch.
 - 7) The Baker Camping Trip will occur the weekend after next. Come pick apples and enjoy your fellow Bakerites!
 - 8) Come to the BBQ on Saturday! The Technique picture of Baker will be taken right afterwards, so stick around.
 - 9) Athlete of the Week: The Freshman class for doing a good job studying for their 8.01 test and the upperclassmen for helping them out.

Old Business:

- 1) Run for Frep or for a Judcomm position! See Tony to get a petition. Candidates will talk at the House Meeting next Monday, and elections will be the following day.
 - 2) Changes to the Spring Rooming Lottery will be discussed at a later date.
 - 3) Laura met with the Alcohol Deans again. They're accepting a lot of student input and have discussed internal systems for registration in dorms and some sort of legal file sharing system for MIT.
 - 4) The Freshman (& Transfer) Mixer is Monday night, 10:30pm. Baker Trivia was given out there and is also available at the front desk. The freshman or transfer that finds out the most about Baker wins a $60 gift certificate to Best Buy! Return your completed trivia to me by Sunday night at 10pm. The Baker Trivia Prizes will be given out at the House Meeting Monday night.
 - 5) What about the piano drop you ask? Will two pianos be dropped on to a TV? Stay tuned to find out... Thanks to alumni Ken for donating a second piano.

New Business:

- 1) Robberies in Baker have increased recently. Deskworkers will take great precautions to avoid these, and the 2-bell warning for intruders will be used more often.
 - 2) We've discussed getting cable in the TV room and perhaps some of the lounges. We'll know more later.

Appropriations:

Social:
$209.21 Happy Hour -> Happy Hour (Martijn, Matthew)

Athletics:
$174.00 IMs -> IMs (Shambhavi, Matthew)

President:
$190.96 Orientation -> Orientation (Matthew, Tyler)

Move to adjourn (Martijn).

- 5) The 65 inch widescreen HDTV is available in the TV Room!
- 6) Baker now has two pianos to drop! The soon-to-be-elected frep will see to it that the Piano Drop occurs this year.
- 7) Play IM sports! You could use the exercise.
- 8) Baker's Halloween Party is coming up at the end of the month. Start preparing your winning costume.
- 9) The Baker Camping Trip will be this weekend. It's expected to cost $5-$10 per person, with the apple picking free. Sign up soon, since it will be first come, first served.
- 10) Athlete of the Night: Red Sox for a decent comeback.

Old Business:

New Business:

- 1) Anjum and Noah are our new Recycling Chairs now. Anjum tells us that mixing our recyclables is worse then throwing them out, cause then everything ends up getting thrown out. Large blue bins are for plastic only, while small square bins are for paper only, so walk that extra distance to recycle in the correct bin!
- 2) Frep Candidates! Vote on Tuesday!
 - a) Brian - He wants to be Frep and thinks he can do a better job than his competitors, although he has little idea what the responsibilities entail. He's a waffle guy who won't dress in drag, and he chose pop over soda and Pepsi over Coke to everyone's dismay.
 - b) Kate/Cate - These two girls have the same name and seem to think that they're the same person. They recycle and think they're hotter than their competitors. However, they have no chimney building experience and plan on disassembling the piano before dropping it. They claim to always agree with each other, yet they didn't agree on the most important decision of all... choosing Coke over Pepsi.
 - c) Yonas - He's a ladies' man who will work hard to see the Piano Drop happen and Matthew to go topless all by the end of the year. He enjoys going to ExecCon meetings and likes things that float from room to room. He didn't realize he's less attractive than the other candidates and has given up on doing anything about it. He chose Pepsi.
- 3) Judcomm Member Elections are also on Tuesday. Two will be elected. Don't forget to vote! The candidates are the same as from the previous Judcomm Chair election: Anjum, Chandra, and Leslie.
- 4) Congratulations to Brian Schmidt on his Baker Trivia win. He receives a $60 gift certificate to Best Buy.

Move to adjourn (Shambhavi)

Next ExecCon Meeting -- Monday, October 13, 10pm, .

Baker Fact of the Month: The Baker Piano Drop was first held on October 24, 1972 and continued annually until Amherst Alley was moved further away in 1984. The alley was moved in order to prevent Baker from dropping any more pianos on it, since it was claimed that the reason for the Piano Drop was to see how big a dent could be made in the asphalt. These dents were measured in units of "Brunos," which were defined as the "unit of volume equal to the size of the dent in asphalt resulting from the free fall of an upright piano." 1 Bruno = 1158 cubic cm, as found by the first drop.

Large blue bins are for plastic only, while small square bins are for paper only, so walk that extra distance to recycle in the correct bin!
- 2) Frep Candidates! Vote on Tuesday!
 - a) Brian - He wants to be Frep and thinks he can do a better job than his competitors, although he has little idea what the responsibilities entail. He's a waffle guy who won't dress in drag, and he chose pop over soda and Pepsi over Coke to everyone's dismay.
 - b) Kate/Cate - These two girls have the same name and seem to think that they're the same person. They recycle and think they're hotter than their competitors. However, they have no chimney building experience and plan on dissembling the piano before dropping it. They claim to always agree with each other, yet they didn't agree on the most important decision of all... choosing Coke over Pepsi.
 - c) Yonas - He's a ladies' man who will work hard to see the Piano Drop happen and Matthew to go topless all by the end of the year. He enjoys going to ExecCon meetings and likes things that float from room to room. He didn't realize he's less attractive than the other candidates and has given up on doing anything about it. He chose Pepsi.
- 3) Judcomm Member Elections are also on Tuesday. Two will be elected. Don't forget to vote! The candidates are the same as from the previous Judcomm Chair election: Anjum, Chandra, and Leslie.
- 4) Congratulations to Brian Schmidt on his Baker Trivia win. He receives a $60 gift certificate to Best Buy.

Move to adjourn (Shambhavi)

Next ExecCon Meeting -- Monday, October 13, 10pm, .

Baker Fact of the Month: The Baker Piano Drop was first held on October 24, 1972 and continued annually until Amherst Alley was moved further away in 1984. The alley was moved in order to prevent Baker from dropping any more pianos on it, since it was claimed that the reason for the Piano Drop was to see how big a dent could be made in the asphalt. These dents were measured in units of "Brunos," which were defined as the "unit of volume equal to the size of the dent in asphalt resulting from the free fall of an upright piano." 1 Bruno = 1158 cubic cm, as found by the first drop.

Motion to approve last year's minutes (Tyler, Jimmy)

Announcements:

- 1) The new 65 inch widescreen HDTV is now available in the TV room! If the door is locked, get the key for it at desk or see Jimmy.
 - 2) The Baker Camping Trip is next weekend. Sign up now to pick apples and enjoy the company of your fellow Bakerites without cracking your head open.
 - 3) Thanks to everyone for coming to Oktoberfest and making the competition tight. Congratulations to the Juniors for a well-earned victory, and also to Dan Robey for demonstrating that the seniors wouldn't go down easily this year.
 - 4) Special thanks to Social for throwing an awesome Oktoberfest in very little time, as well as an equally impressive BBQ.
 - 5) Thanks to all the freshmen and transfers who came to the mixer... much fun was had by all.
 - 6) Baker Trivia is due Monday at 5pm in room 417 now. All freshmen and transfers who want to win a $60 gift certificate should learn more about Baker House as soon as possible.
 - 7) 62 days remain until Holiday Party. Get a date!
 - 8) Happy Birthday to Jimmy and Ran, and thanks for throwing a kickin' party!
 - 9) If you need a date for Holiday Party and are otherwise unable to obtain one yourself, then talk to Social <martijn@mit.edu>, <tom_w@mit.edu>. They will be heading up the date-finding committee for this year. Who knows, you may even get matched up with Noto's mom.
 - 10) 3 weeks remain until the Halloween Party, which will actually be on the 31st this year. Get a costume!
 - 11) Congratulations to Baker's very own Happy, the Solo cup, for making his stage debut this weekend in Sigma Kappa Late Night. That little guy is going places...
 - 12) Do not use the emergency exit in first west unless there is a real emergency. Using this door will cause you to face the wrath of both Julius and of Judcomm.
 - 13) Postering rules will be enforced. You may poster on your own door, but no where else outside of the lobby. Stapling to wood is strictly prohibited.
 - 14) Play IM sports! If you don't play for Baker, then who will?
 - 15) Athlete of the Week: The junior class for dominating Oktoberfest, with an Honorable Mention to the freshman class for a strong showing.
Unathlete of the Week: The Baker server for going down more than Noto's mom.

Old Business:

- 1) Get a petiton from Tony to run for Frep or for Judcomm positions. Petitions are due at the House Meeting Monday night at 10pm, where the candidates will all give a short talk. Elections will follow on Tuesday. Don't forget to vote!
 - 2) Changes to the Rooming Lottery will be discussed at a later date.
 - 3) Will the Piano Drop happen this year? We certainly hope so. The yet-to-be-elected Frep has been appointed Chair of the Piano Drop Committee, so we'll certainly be looking into the logistics. Ken, the extra-piano-donating-MIT-alum, certainly knows a lot of positions, so hopefully he can provide some insight.
 - 4) Will we be getting cable for the lounges? Well, the installation would be $8000, which is quite a bit overbudget, although the GRTs and perhaps the Housemasters would be going in on this. It's been suggested to put off renovating the pool table until next term, but we'd still need to come up with more money. I guess we'll see.

New Business:

- 1) Jennifer and Nikhil have just returned from the UA retreat, where they discussed party registration as well as whether flags should be permitted to hang out windows. We may see if we can go through the UA to try to get an internal party registration system in place. Also, there will be a meeting on the flag issue at 9pm Monday.
 - 2) The Baker server baker.mit.edu is down, and we need to get it functioning again. Until then, we can't e-mail any of the Baker mailing lists or use the web page. The RCCs are trying to fix the problem, but it may take a while. Also, Baker's printer Bricks is currently in 2nd East but will soon be moving up to 6th floor. If you wish to set your computer up to print to Bricks, go to <http://> itinfo.mit.edu/product?name=klp and follow the instructions.

Appropriations:

Social:

$496.33 Oktoberfest -> Oktoberfest (Martijn, Matthew)

$425.64 BBQ -> BBQ (Martijn, Matthew)

$309.45 TNK -> TNK (Martijn, Matthew)

VPRO:

$77.91 Misc -> Freshman Mixer (Jennifer, Matthew)

Move to adjourn (Jennifer).

Next House Meeting -- Monday, October 6th, 10pm, Baker Dining.

Baker Fact of the Week: When they were freshmen living in 301, Marcin Strojwas and Veeral Shah '00 pretended to be gay lovers in an attempt to drive out their third roommate, Ivan Aguayo. They succeeded. I just wish that that's what my freshman roommates were actually trying to do...

Motion to approve last year's minutes (Tom, Tyler)

Announcements:

- 1) Go Red Sox!
 - 2) Congratulations to Yonas for becoming Frep, as well as to our new Judcomm members, Anjum and Chandra. Let's keep up Baker's tradition of having awesome Freps.
 - 3) The camping trip rocked. Thanks to Jay, Jimmy, and Tony for making it possible. Unthanks to USave, soon to be called USuck, for their unsettling business practices.
 - 4) Social was thinking of having a Baker Birthday Party, but Baker's birthday is June 11, 1949, around the time of graduation. Maybe they'll have it for a related Baker birthday...
 - 5) Wednesday at 10pm, there will be a UA Study Break in the 1st Central Lounge of Baker to discuss the flag issues that have been arising.
 - 6) 54 days left until Holiday Party! Get a date!
 - 7) The Baker Scavenger Hunt will be next Saturday starting at 9pm. Come ready to find everything!
 - 8) 18 days left until Halloween Party! Get a costume!
 - 9) Play IM sports! That is all.
 - 10) Baker Rounds will occur eventually, perhaps on next Thursday. If you're in your room, you may just get a treat...
 - 11) Postering rules will be enforced. Postering for non-Baker events may only be done on the cork-board pillar and staircase of the lobby, and on the doors of consenting students. We may talk to the ASA to help us enforce these rules.
 - 12) Athlete of the Week: Kate and Cate for making the most of their camping trip experience.
Unathlete of the Week: USuck for sucking rather than saving.

Old Business:

- 1) Vote to Approve Yonas as the new Freshmen Representative: Passes 5-1.
Vote to Approve Anjum and Chandra as our new Judcomm members: Passes 7-0 (since Yonas can vote too now).
Congratulations to all our new winners!
 - 2) Discussion of the Rooming Lottery changes have been tabled by Jimmy.
 - 3) Getting cable in the longes and TV room would cost ExecCon $775 per drop, but this is a one time deal since the floor tutors are getting cable now. If we try to get it in the future, it will cost significantly more. Vote to install a cable drop in the TV room but not in the lounges: Passes 8-0.
 - 4) The Baker server is still down. We've discussed using temporary MIT lists until it's back up and also perhaps seeking outside help. We'll do whatever it takes to get baker.mit.edu back up and running.
 - 5) Yonas is now the Piano Drop Chair. Let's see to it that he brings us a good Piano Drop this year.

New Business:

- 1) We discussed an issue brought up at the UA about whether Baker wanted to have a joint formal with another living group. Baker hasn't really had a joint event in a long while, so it may be a good idea to do so eventually to keep up our socialable reputation. This may mean increasing our budget of that social event, so we'll see what works.
 - 2) Martijn received an enjoyable letter from a Baker alum who lived in 401. He'll read it to us at a later date.
 - 3) Vandalism struck again this weekend. several whiteboard markers from 4th and 6th were stolen, and graffiti was found on the NW staircase and on several residents' doors. The perpetrators will be dealt with.

Appropriations:

Social:

$214.70	Halloween -> Halloween	(Martijn, Matthew)

$200 Weight Room -> Camping Trip (Jimmy, Martijn)

President:

$1412.17 Camping Trip -> Camping Trip (Martijn, Yonas)

Move to adjourn (Tom).

Next ExecCon Meeting -- Sunday, October 19th, 10pm, Room 246.

Baker Fact of the Week: When Baker Dining was in danger of closing down in 1994, Albert Hsu '96 and several other students took it upon themselves to form the Baker Dining Committee that was able to resurrect the dining hall by transferring control from Aramark to the students. This is Baker. Don't let it die.

This portion of minutes is dedicated to Dan Schultz for resurrecting the (at least temporary) baker mailing lists. Otherwise, you wouldn't be able to read fun emails like this one.

Motion to approve last week's minutes (Matthew, Yonas)

Announcements:

- 1) Thanks to all those involved in the scavenger hunt. I believe the only things left on the list to find are Tom Lada and the Next House front door. With your help Baker may someday get these back.
 - 2) Thanks to everyone who came to the UA meeting to discuss the flag issues.
 - 3) Come to Simmons Friday at 9pm to see Our Friend Glenn perform. There's no shame in a shameless plug.
 - 4) Baker basketball lost today, due to the overwhelmingly low show-up. The bowling team, however, won, despite their poor bowling. The tennis team seems to have all but disappeared completely as of late... where is that tennis captain of ours, anyway?
 - 5) There will be a Happy Hour on Friday at 5pm. Come be happy.
 - 6) 48 days remain until Holiday Party. Get a date!
 - 7) One week remains until Halloween Party. Get a costume!
 - 8) Play IM sports or you will be cut... by the athletic chairs... with a knife.
 - 9) The Baker Dining Committee met for its first time Sunday night. We discussed the food options, the new mandatory freshman plan, and many other aspects of dining. The Dining Chair (me) will email out weekly menus in the future.
 - 10) Athlete of the Week: The Baker IM bowling team for beating out, due to our overly large handicaps, the IM Bowling Chair and his whiny girlfriend who was complaining the whole time about how we might beat them due to our overly large handicaps.
 - 11) RCC of the Week: Dan Schultz for being an all-around great RCC.

Old Business:

- 1) Special thanks to Dan Schultz for creating new baker temporary mailing lists. All of the old lists except for the social and execon lists now have operational temp lists, similarly monitored as before. In addition, Bricks the printer is now (or soon will be) moved up to 6th floor.
 - 2) Yonas is hard at work on the Piano Drop, shooting for a spring drop date. He will provide a visual next week, showing us how a piano falls off a roof. First step's first.
 - 3) Jennifer brought up the flag issue again. The current wording of the rule that some claim bans the hanging of flags out of windows seems to most of us to really be banning people from doing things like uninstalling your windows to install cannons. It makes sense that we shouldn't be allowed to do that since the dorms aren't pirate ships, but pirate ships also hang flags. Anyway, we took an informal poll on whether we felt that flags should be allowed to hang out dorm windows. 4 votes for they shouldn't be allowed, 9 votes for it should be up to each individual dorm, and 2 votes for it should be allowed.
 - 4) Martijn will read us a letter from a Baker alum next week. If this goes well, we may even have a Baker Story Hour every week.

New Business:

- 1) DKE is being kicked out of their house for a year and not being allowed to participate in next year's Rush due to having alcohol at an unregistered sports mixer before the start of Rush, which some claimed to be a Rush violation. This decision seems to many of us to be provoked by ulterior motives, as it is inconsistent with any past actions taken against any other group. If this punishment is implemented, it may lead to a nasty precedent which may or may not harm the spirit of MIT as a whole. If you'd like to help to save DKE, feel free to sign the petition at desk.

Appropriations:

One day in 1965, traffic in Sweden stopped completely as everyone switched from driving on the left side of the road to driving on the right. If we tried doing that today, I'm willing to bet that a good majority of the country would get into accidents. Those Swedes must have been pretty good coordinators.

Motion to approve last week's minutes (Shambhavi, Tyler)

Announcements:

- 1) Play IM sports. We especially need more people to show up for soccer. Let's go do what we do best!
 - 2) There will be a TNK on Thursday with sushi and the Matrix. They go together like lamb and tuna fish.
 - 3) Halloween Party is on Friday, around 10pm. Get a costume or dress as Temi!
 - 4) 41 days to Holiday Party! Get a date!
 - 5) Lock your doors whenever you leave your room or are asleep. Thefts have gone up again.
 - 6) Athlete of the Week: The Marlins for finally showing the Yankees what-for. Someone had to.

Old Business:

- 1) A flag committe has been formed by the UA. The hanging of flags out windows continues to be a controversial topic.
 - 2) DKE has been dehoued for a year. Hopefully this won't become a growing trend at MIT.
 - 3) Martijn read us the letter from the Baker 401 alum. He dated half the girls at MIT (all living in McCormick) and enjoyed watching porn in the lounge. And he reenforced the claim that Baker is and always has been the place to be.
 - 4) Yonas spoke of the Piano Drop. He drew us a last minute schematic diagram of a piano falling off a roof. Mina chimed in on her past experiences planning a piano drop, mentioning the possibility of Baker still having the dropping ramp somewhere and the need for there to be something hard for it to land on. We're making more progress.

New Business:

- 1) The new movie check-out system is working well so far. If anyone still has Baker movies they never returned, they should do so.

Pirate Joke of the Week: Long ago, when sailing ships ruled the waves, a captain and his crew were in danger of being boarded by a pirate ship. As the crew became frantic, the captain bellowed to his First Mate, "Bring me my red shirt!" The First Mate quickly retrieved the captain's red shirt, which the captain put on and led the crew to battle the pirate boarding party. Although some casualties occurred among the crew, the pirates were repelled. Later that day, the lookout screamed that there were two pirate vessels sending boarding parties. The crew cowered in fear, but the captain, calm as ever, bellowed, "Bring me my red shirt!" Once again the battle was on. However, the Captain and his crew repelled both boarding parties, though this time more casualties occurred.
Weary from the battles, the men sat around on deck that night recounting the day's occurrences when an ensign looked to the

Captain and asked, "Sir, why did you call for your red shirt before the battle?" The Captain, giving the ensign a look that only a captain can give, exhorted, "If I am wounded in battle, the red shirt does not show the wound and thus, you men will continue to fight unafraid." The men sat in silence marveling at the courage of such a man. As dawn came the next morning, the lookout screamed that there were pirate ships, 10 of them, all with boarding parties on their way. The men became silent and looked to the Captain, their leader, for his usual command. The Captain, calm as ever, bellowed, "Bring me my brown pants!"

Motion to approve last week's minutes (Shambhavi, Tyler)

Announcements:

- 1) Play IM sports or be cut. IM soccer players showed up for two games in a row on Saturday, a new record!
 - 2) 34 days to Holiday Party. Get a date!
 - 3) The Baker vacuum is finally behind desk. Use your card to check it out. Believe me, it does wonders.
 - 4) Reminder to all Bakerites that you are responsible for your guests and will be held accountable for any vandalism or theft committed by them.
 - 5) Thanks to Social for a kickin' Halloween Party, along with everyone else involved. Social would like to thank everyone who attended, especially Mike Berg, who won the costume contest dressed as the Hamburglar. We'd recommended locking up all your burgers whenever he's around.
 - 6) Athlete of the Week: We had originally voted for the giant spider at the Halloween Party who blew more smoke than Noto's mom, but this was later changed to Jeanette for bringing us scrumptious cookies.

Old Business:

- 1) Yonas is still hard at work on the Piano Drop, with Social Chris helping out. He has received gads of sarcastic emails about how he should just drop the piano, so keep them coming! We will watch the video of past piano drops at a later date.

New Business:

- 1) Scott just realized that Baker lost $8000 at the end of October. But it turns out that this was the same $8000 that mysteriously appeared in our account at the end of September. So we haven't really lost anything at all.
 - 2) Baker has a new 5 inch black and white TV, which came free with Brick's new toner. We're still working out the details on where in Baker it will fit.
 - 3) The Baker Ski Trip this year is being organized by Laura Waller. This may turn out to be Baker's first International Ski Trip. She's still working out the details on whether to have the trip in Canada or at Sugarloaf and may send out an email asking for feedback.
 - 4) Don't vandalize Baker. If you make a mess in a lounge, clean up after yourself. Some people seem to have forgotten this recently. This is Baker, don't let it die.

easy for all us sinners. Shoosh. I sure hope you read 'em. Welp, that about does her, wraps her all up. Things seem to've worked out pretty good for Baker, and they were purt good minutes, dontcha think? Made me laugh to beat the band. Parts, anyway. Course--I didn't like seein' the $8000 go. But then, happen to know that there's another minutes on the way. I guess that's the way the whole durned human comedy keeps perpetuatin' it-self, down through the generations, westward the wagons, across the sands a time until-- aw, look at me, I'm ramblin' again. Motion to approve last week's minutes (Yonas, Jimmy)

Announcements:

- 1) No one announced to play IM sports this time, but you should anyway.
 - 2) 25 days to Holiday Party! Get a date!
 - 3) 10pm in 4th West on Saturday would be a good time to make "progress" toward doing your laundry. Or check on your friend's laundry (in 4th West). Or sift through random articles of clothing in those spinning machines (in 4th West). Or watch laundry theatre (in 4th West). You get the idea. If not, just realize there'll be free food.
 - 4) JudcommButteries and coming soon. Be on the look out for free cookies and milk.
 - 5) The Baker ice skates have been sharpened. Try not to hurt yourself.
 - 6) Athlete of the Week: Scott for replying to an email from Tony which asked for $3, ccing the reply to Wanda, a Professor Of Communication Sciences, addressing her as his secretary, and asking her to get on top of it. I guess that'll be the last time Scott just assumes that no one at MIT has a name like Wanda.

Old Business:

- 1) Yonas and Chris talked to each other about the Piano Drop. They'll talk more later.
 - 2) We still don't know what to do with Baker's new 5 inch TV. Top contenders for it include desk and the exercise room.
 - 3) Laura Waller spoke more of the Ski Trip and is leaning towards Canada. We'll see what most people think.

New Business:

- 1) Cable will be installed in the TV room in 3 weeks. It's a very exciting time.
 - 2) The idea of Baker getting a car doesn't seem feasible at the moment, but keep the ideas coming!
 - 3) We spoke a bit about the mandatory dining plan the freshmen are on.

Announcements:

- 1) 25 days until Holiday Party. Get a date!
 - 2) Baker will be getting cable for the big TV in 3 weeks. Now you'll be able to watch more than just the MIT stations.
 - 3) The Baker vacuum is behind desk. According to Laura Waller, it "sucks."
 - 4) Jennifer is the DVD Nazi of Baker now. Return Baker DVDs or suffer her wrath.
 - 5) Something may "progress" in 4th West on Saturday at 10pm. Come find out what!

Old Business:

(none)

New Business:

- 1) Security is our #1 priority, as Prof. Watson stated. The campus police officers, Sergeant Sullivan and Officer Holt, urged us not to leave our rooms unlocked unless our duplicate roommates were around. We are urged to always call them right away, by dialing 100, if we see anyone who doesn't seem to belong here or see any crime. They arrested one of the two girls who had been stealing from Baker, as well as other places on campus. Don't let people into Baker who you don't know. Many thieves hang out in locker rooms and steal only credit cards, maxing them out faster than the sergeant's wife can before you even notice they're gone. They arrested the man responsible for 5 armed ATM robberies in the past 10 days. Bike thefts are also big. You should also press the button on any blue phone around campus in any emergency. Ken from the night watch also spoke, explaining how the security does rounds twice a night to make sure Baker is safe. Respect the safety of yourself and others. This is Baker, don't let it die.
 - 2) Laura Waller is organizing the Baker Ski Trip for the end of January or beginning of February, so that it won't conflict with too much. She's thinking of going for Tromblonon in Canada, with a total cost of about $200 a person for the 2-day lift tickets, rooming, and bus. Details to follow.

Old Business:

- 1) Yonas and Chris talked about the piano drop on Saturday night and noted that throwing things off the roof will not help them with the piano drop. Yonas will present us with the preliminary equations next week.
 - 2) We have reached a decision to decide what to do with Baker's new 5 inch TV by the end of the term. Yonas has been appointed the new 5 inch TV Chair, and he will be forming his committee soon.
 - 3) Laura is planning the Baker Ski Trip tentatively for the weekend of February 6th in Tremblant in Canada. We'll see how this works out.
 - 4) We spoke of the mandatory freshman meal plan, which is being called a facilities fee. Many freshmen pledges feel unhappy with it since many eat at the places they're pledging.

New Business:

- 1) Saturday night saw a good party as well as many not-so-good things, including: vandalism, non-MIT people outnumbering MIT people, hosts not keeping tabs on their guests, disrespectful and destructive guests, dry-erase markers stolen and used on walls and doors in 6th West, the stairwell, windows, and other doors, games of shopping cart bumper cars, guests watching sodas explode, knocking over trash cans, swedish fish everywhere and multiplying, etc.
It is acceptable to have a few friends over as guests as long as you keep an eye on those guests and take responsibility for their actions, but some Bakerites are abusing this policy by inviting unacceptable numbers of guests who have no respect for Baker or its inhabitants. The number of non-MIT people at closed Baker events should be well below the number of Bakerites attending. Some people have come forward to take responsibility for their guests, but this sort of thing cannot be tolerated. Judcomm will deal with those responsible as they see fit to guarantee that this will not happen again. Use your judgement when inviting guests. Don't invite friends of friends of aunts or cousins, or as Matthew summed this up, "We don't want Kevin Bacon here."
We've also discussed methods of limiting guests, including making a guest list and hiring an extra desk worker during major social events. As of now, the Winter Formal is still on, the next Happy Hour is probably on, but room service has been cancelled for this term. Baker needs to get its act together, or we could be seeing the end of Baker as we know it now. This is Baker. Don't let it die.
 - 2) Baker's spare key policy is that only the residents of any room can check out that room's key. We've discussed methods of enforcing this, since many people lock all forms of ID in their room when they've locked their keys in. Our leading ideas are to label the keys by MIT ID numbers or by mailbox numbers.
 - 3) We discussed what kind of authority execcon members have to cancel their events, and it was decided that if there is due cause, any member can cancel an event without having to consult execcon. "Tony, let's not be absurd," was Lara's response to an example involving her cancelling IM sports due to our team members committing murders. Not to worry though, fellow Bakerites, I won't be cancelling your favorite minutes anytime soon.

Appropriations:

Social:

$490.89 Closed Party -> Closed Party (Tom, Jimmy)

Secretary:

$60.00 Baker Trivia Prize -> Baker Trivia Prize (Tom, Matthew)

Move to adjourn (Yonas).

Motion to approve last week's minutes (Shambhavi, Yonas)

Announcements:

- 1) The faculty reception may happen sometime soon, depending on what Matthew decides. Since we made this announcement without Matthew, it's unclear.
 - 2) Judcomm Butteries will be on Tuesday for real this time. Be around to learn about Baker's judicial policies and have milk and cookies.
 - 3) Sophomores should email Nicole <ndray@mit.edu> to apply to be Rooming Chair for their year. Rooming Chair gets the first pick in the lottery and can decide where everyone lives in Baker.
 - 4) 13 days until Holiday Party! Get a date or a blow up doll! Email Martijn <martijn@mit.edu> if you want a date but don't have one... he's got the hook up. Also, come to the set up party the Friday night before Holiday Party, so we can make Holiday Party even more kick-ass.
 - 5) The IM Chairs told me to play IM sports. So should you.
 - 6) A generous alum, Mike Golinko, donated $2500 to Baker this week. We're all very thankful.
 - 7) Athlete of the Week: Tony, Jimmy, Alvin, and Scott for bowlin' it up on Saturday and strategically knocking Baker from its first place position to some place quite a bit lower, so that the other teams would underestimate us if we still make the playoffs.

Old Business:

- 1) Yonas didn't exactly have the Piano Drop equations this week, but we're promised progress after Thanksgiving.
 - 2) As the 5 inch TV Chair, Yonas is considering using the 5 inch TV as the Baker Trivia Prize for next year. A decision will be made soon.
 - 3) Laura is still waiting to confirm the ski trip for the weekend of Feb. 6th at Tremblant in Canada.
 - 4) We discussed the vandalism situation and how to control our parties, so that we don't get Deked. We discussed the use of wristbands, but this may not help since it's our policy not to have alcohol at Baker parties. The best idea may be to have people working the door. We'll see.
 - 5) Lilly will discuss the spare key policy with us next week.

New Business:

- 1) We discussed the different bell codes and how to make the best use of them. We may get a new bell code for IM sports, to differentiate them from social events. Also, the secretary doesn't have his own bell call yet, and he deserves one.

Appropriations:

Social:

$149.60	Room/Floor Party -> R/F Party	(Martijn, Shambhavi)
$309.05	TNK -> TNK	(Martijn, Tyler)

President:

$15.74	Misc -> Trivia	(Jennifer, Matthew)
$37.98	Scavenger Hunt -> Scavenger Hunt	(Jennifer, Shambhavi)

Move to adjourn (Shambhavi).

A man who doesn't read his minutes can never be a real man.

Motion to approve last week's minutes (Yonas, Tyler)

Announcements:

- 1) Tyler says to play IM sports. He's usually right about these kinds of things.
 - 2) 5 days to Holiday Party! Get a date! Or Martijn can hook you up with one. Be sure to catch appearances by the Logs, Santa, a DJ, lots of pastries, a bit of mistletoe, and no recycling bins falling on the roof, Saturday night at 10pm.
 - 3) The Set-up Party will be at 8pm on Friday, in preparation for the Holiday Party. All should come help out, especially you freshmen! Don't let Yonas down by not showing up...
 - 4) The date for the Frep Brunch will be announced soon. It will be some time between Dec 8th and the end of finals.
 - 5) Athlete of the Week: Brian Schmidt for eating a lot on Thanksgiving, including two plates of desserts, and then declaring himself full with only one bite left.

Old Business:

- 1) Yonas shed more light on the Piano Drop with diagrams of where we could or could not drop the piano. More to come.
 - 2) The Baker Ski Trip is set for the weekend of Feb 6th at Tremblant in Canada. The cost will be around $200 per person, but there may be a possibility of next term's Execon subsidizing a portion of the trip. We won't know until next term whether there we be any rebates, though.
 - 3) Matthew volunteered to have the trunkroom bells (1-3) changed to bells for IM sports. This is still off the record, so we'll see how it pans out.

New Business:

(none)

Appropriations:

Social:

$229.04 Room/Floor Party -> R/F Party (Martijn, Matthew)
$323.86 TNK -> TNK (Martijn, Matthew)
$355.00 Holiday Party -> Holiday Party (Martijn, Matthew)

VPIR:

Motion to Approve Last Meeting's Minutes (Yonas, Lara)

Announcements:

- 1) Play IM sports!
- 2) Come to the Holiday Party Saturday at 10pm. We'll have the Logs, Santa, and pastries. Formal attire is expected.
- 3) Come to the Set-up Party for the Holiday Party on Friday night at 8pm. If you're a freshman, you should especially come. You're in for a treat.
- 4) There was an article on Baker in Metropolis. Check it out.
- 5) The Frep Brunch will occur, possibly next week. It may even be at night again.
- 6) Voting for ExecCon for next year will probably take place around the first week of classes. Run for a position next term so that you can help keep Baker great!
- 7) The Baker Picture Book will be printed over IAP. If your picture has still not been taken, come to 418 to have Matthew take it.
- 8) Our last IM Hockey game is next Wednesday. Come play!
- 9) Baker will have its satellite dish installed within two weeks. Then the parties can start!

Old Business:

- 1) The Ski Trip will be the weekend of Feb 6th at Tremblant in Canada, at a cost of $200 per person. There seems to be little incentive for Baker to subsidize the trip at the moment, but that's up to next term's ExecCon to decide.

New Business:

Don't cry yet... there's still one more minutes coming out next week!

Motion to approve last week's minutes (Shambhavi, Jennifer)

Announcements:

- 1) Play IM sports!
 - 2) ExecCon apologizes for breaking the elevator temporarily.
 - 3) Special thanks to Social for a kick-ass Holiday Party. Thanks to everyone involved.
 - 4) The Baker trashcans are temporarily rearranged... it seems that the TV Room has a trashcan now. Yonas would like to thank everyone in Baker for recycling.
 - 5) 365 days to the next Holiday Party! Get a date!
 - 6) There will be a Happy Hour on Friday. Eat, drink and be merry to celebrate the end of the term!
 - 7) The Athletic/Frep Brunch will be Tuesday night/Wednesday morning at 12:30am. Enjoy your waffles and ice cream!
 - 8) Send your Baker party pictures to Martijn, <martijn@mit.edu>, so that he can compile them to help next year's Social out. Matthew also needs more party pictures for the Picture Book, coming out over IAP.
 - 9) Athlete of the Week: Social for organizing Holiday Party, having a successful Tree Trip, getting locked out of the van for hours at BJs, digging and pushing the van out of the snow in Kresge, and completing many many more feats of strength and endurance over the weekend.
Honorable Mention: Santa for being so jolly.
Unathlete of the Week: Those those stole the box of canolis from Holiday Party.

Old Business:

- 1) Nothing new on the Piano Drop for now, but Yonas will make great progress over IAP.
 - 2) The Ski Trip is still set for Feb 6th-8th at Tremblant in Canada, for around $200 a person.
 - 3) The new 1-3 IM sport bells are now in effect, so don't all go running down to the trunk room when you hear them.

New Business:

- 1) Hopefully, we'll be able to get baker.mit.edu back up over IAP. Dan, Tom, and Martijn plan to work on this.
 - 2) Anyone interested in running for ExecCon next term should talk to current/past ExecCon members to find out the responsibilities. Everyone with an interest in making Baker stay great is encouraged to run.

Appropriations:

Social:
$448.18 TNK -> TNK (Martijn, Shambhavi)
$3761.58 Holiday Party -> Holiday Party (Martijn, Tyler)
Judcomm:
$92.57 Butteries -> Butteries (Laura, Shambhavi)

If you really feel minutes-deprived over break, just email me and I'll throw you together some quick minutes. Have a great break!

Motion to approve last week's minutes (Tyler, Tom)

Announcements:

- 1) Good luck on finals, everyone!
- 2) Play IM sports... even though they've all ended.
- 3) Enjoy your IAP.
- 4) Lara has a blue watch if anyone lost theirs.
- 5) Matthew still needs pictures for the picture book. He's in 418 if you have pictures.
- 6) Athlete of the Week: Zardosht for scanning more freshmen pictures than a Vegas casino.

Old Business:

- 1) Piano drop will tentatively be on Drop Date. More will be made known over IAP.
- 2) The ski trip price will be set soon. It will be Feb 6th through 8th at Tremblant in Canada.
- 3) The Baker website will hopefully get back up over IAP.
- 4) Run for ExecCon next term! Talk to current execon about their responsibilities.

New Business:

- 1) MIT has taken an official stance against showering others. ExecCon has its own opinions here and offers assistance to anyone unable to take a shower themselves.

Appropriations:

Motion to approve last week's minutes (Tyler, Lara)

Announcements:

- 1) There will be a House Meeting tomorrow at 10pm in Baker Commons. Come to see all your favorite ExecCon candidates make speeches. Voting will be at desk on Wednesday.
- 2) This is the last ExecCon meeting with our current ExecCon. Our next meeting will be run by the new ExecCon to be elected by you on Wednesday.
- 2) Thanks to everyone who came to the Superbowl Party, especially those who helped out. We had the best attendance in memory, and fun was had by all.
- 3) Athlete of the Week: Justin Timberlake for showing the world Janet Jackson's "surprise guest" during the halftime show.

Old Business:

(none)

New Business:

- 1) Everyone running for ExecCon positions, excluding secretary and treasurer, should get their petitions to Tony as soon as possible.
- 2) The ski trip will be Friday through Sunday at Tromblant. The current plan is to rent two 15-passenger vans to ride up there, but the cost of transportation was somehow overlooked when quoting the price. ExecCon takes responsibility for this mistake. We voted for ExecCon to cover the cost of transportation, and this vote passed 5-0-2 (abstain).

 - 2) The Baker ski trip will be Fri the 6th through sun the 8th. Laura will send an email with more information soon.
 - 3) Social would like to give a special thanks to Chris for helping out so much over the term.

Old Business:

(none)

New Business:

- 1) Elections will be Wednesday 10am to 10pm at desk. Don't forget to vote! Here are the candidates:

VPFS:

Scott - He has a strong interest in helping Baker and has helped Jimmy in the past with purchases for Baker, including many DVDs. Just let him know what you want improved. He even promises to purchase "certain" movies for Baker.

VPIR:

Matthew - Got a lot done this term as VPIR, including taking over the Picture Book. He was on the GRT selection committee and runs the trunkroom, but he doesn't like Cola.

VPRO:

Christie & Elyse - These girls want to be involved and smile well.

Athletic:

Tyler - Along with his unofficial running mate Etan, he plans on keeping Baker involved with IMs, making a calendar of Baker events, and keeping the equipment stocked. He is the IM Bowling captain and prefers soccer over football.

Judcomm:

Jennifer - She'll lay down the law and get good cookies for butteries. She tells us that throwing things off the roof can lose your housing and enjoys Oreos.

President:

Jeff - Has 3 years of experience on ExecCon and wants to get stuff done. He plans to keep Baker thriving and doesn't think looks are important.

Tom - He loves this place and promises to continue Baker's traditions and to have everyone "over the moon with joy." He thinks he has brought more pleasure to Baker than Noto's mom.

Martijn - He will keep his campaign promises, including "Open door Fridays" to air concerns about Baker. Although he's not a US citizen, he is responsible.

Social:

Alice & Steve - Believe Baker is the greatest place to live, is run well, and is very social. They like the level of involvement that Social is at now and want to continue this by throwing parties and ordering from Subway. They plan to hold the social fabric together. They won't let the party registration process be a pain and will keep things from getting out of hand. And Steve enjoys hard work.

Anjum & Leslie - Told us the Untrue History of Baker, where the West beat the East under the command of Han Solo Cup. As his descendents, they plan to bring his traditions back, including dorm rush. They plan to add even more parties and to throw a great Spring Formal. They would appoint MBPP chairs and are more powerful than they look. They'd register the big parties and don't shrink in the cold.

Move to adjourn (Matthew)

Next ExecCon Meeting -- Monday, December 10th, 11pm, 6th West.

E-mail wbwatson@mit.edu or tom_w@mit.edu if you have better ideas. Or if you think a glossy newsletter is retarded.

3. Prof. Watson nominates Tom to head the grant proposal committee. Then he hits Webber upside the head. Email tom_w@mit.edu if you want to hook up with Jimmy Noonan*.
4. Don't know how to take care of a drunk? Info coming soon to a bathroom stall near you.
5. Desk is carding hardcore. Julius will be a bouncer.
6. Matthew tells story. People laugh inexplicably.
7. Tom is very possessive of our ice. Random frat guy suffers his wrath.
8. Next House Meeting: 3.1.2004

Adjourn (Elysse)

*must be Asian to apply.

you will not actually hook up with Jimmy Noonan. You will join the proposal committee.

BAKER EXECCON
3.7.2004

MTA (Tylerfer)

Announcements

1. Social Calendar out this week.
2. 25K Meeting tonight after Execon.
3. Picture Book Draft Unveiling at Execon 3.14.2004
4. Go to the BBQ a couple of hours ago.
5. Go to the TNK last Thursday. Shout out to juggling man and his family of clowns.
6. AOTW: Etan Q. Trangle for successfully fooling 2 bars with a fake, but getting carded and thrown out of the Z-Center.

Old Business

1. None

New Business

1. Baker does it have quiet hours? If you deleted Pres' email about it a couple of days ago I dunno what to tell you.

Aside: Weiss is down!

2. Seven-foot pool table, coming soon!

Aside: Weiss is back up! That dog!

3. Does getting sauced on a boat with McGregor sound like a fun Spring Formal? E-mail alice05 or steve7 if you think so.
4. Watch out where you poster. Mr. John M. Nolan will enforce. And it that doesn't scare you, we'll send Matthew "Watchdog" Webber after you.

Appropriations

1. $410 TNK to TNK (Alice, Watchdog)
2. $165.42 TNK to TNK (Alice, Tyler)
3. $145.05 Happy Hour to Happy Hour (Alice, Watchdog)
4. $246.06 Room Floor to Room Floor (Alice, Watchdog)
5. $818.77 Movies to Movies (Scooter Edinburgh, Ty)
6. $209.99 Printer to Printer (Scooter, Callahan)

BAKER EXECCON
3.14.2004

MTA (Tyler, Tony)

Announcements

- 1) Welcome to 511.
- 2) Thanks for BBQ, Social.
- 3) MBPP April 3rd 9pm-1am. There will be no metal detectors, but Tony reserves the right to perform strip searches.
- 4) stropS MI yalP.
- 5) Nuts Happy Hour this Friday.
- 6) Watchdog Webber is in Boston with his family. Tyler brings bad cookies in his stead.
- 7) New computer needs songs. Send Alice music you want to hear at parties (share it on the network). No need to send any Brittany Spears songs, Mr. Noonan has taken care of that himself.
- 8) AOTW: The hawk for assassinating the pigeon.

Old Business

- 1) The Quiet-Hours issue has been resolved.
- 2) The pool table isn't missing. It's being replaced by a seven-foot pool table!
- 3) Does getting sauced on a boat with McGregor sound like a fun Spring Formal? Most of Baker thinks so.
- 4) E-mails will be sent out about Baker postering policy. So be careful where you stick those things.

New Business

- 1) Tony Weinbeck = Piano Drop Chair, a.k.a. "Chair of something inane."
- 2) VPRO needs pots and pans. Baker is starting a collection, but Scott is focusing on other things like the missing pool table or Sarah's nevermind.
- 3) JudCom: Butteries and flyers are after spring break. If you like to like to blast you music coughMikeBergcough, listen up: you get 2 official warnings, a conference with Professor Watson, and then fines.
- 4) Picture Book: A Draft copy of the new picture book was passed around. It's going to cost more that $600 unless we come up with something else:

OPTION 1: The "Sneak into Athena, print a thousand pages, and sneak out" Option.

OPTION 2: Use part of the 25K to pay for it.

OPTION 3: Hock a car.

OPTION 4: Get leads on "mom and pop" copy shops. If you know any, email Watchdog Webber.

The picture book will be further discussed at the next Execon.

- 5) Baker/Pi Lambs BBQ for CPW again!
- 6) Hip Hop Party asked us for funding. Pres says no because we are not ghetto.
- 7) Postering: enforcing this is not as easy as Watchdog thought. $50 fine for repeat offenders, or postering on our wood/tree.
- 8) Poster making contest by recycling chair. There will be prizes (which may or may not include: an Ankara's gift certificate, a pony, or a copy of the best film of 2003*). Tony asks for a crayon.

Appropriations

- 1) 150 TNK to TNK (AI, Cal)
- 2) 158.16 BBQ to BBQ (Stevo, Lar)
- 3) 420.52 BBQ to BBQ (Stevo, Scooter Edinburgh)
- 4) 500 President's Trip to President's Trip (Scooter, Cal)
- 5) 80.60 Miscellaneous to Miscellaneous (Scooter, Elysse)
- 6) 469.90 comp to comp (AI, Trangle)

MTA(Scooter)

*The movie alluded to is, of course, the animated feature "Sinbad: Legend of the Seven Seas."

Motion to Approve Last Week's Minutes (Tyler Callahan, Matthew Webber)

Announcements:

1. Please participate in IM Sports.
2. Judcomm Butteries are on Tuesday at 8 in the evening-- during these butteries, Judcomm will go around and hand out free food as well as introduce themselves to all you Bakerites!
3. Sign up to give Baker Tours during CPW Saturday. There will be a brunch on Sunday Morning at around 11am during CPW. There will be a HouseMaster's Reception on Saturday from 11am to 12pm. The latter might be exclusively for the parents. Expect an email.
4. The Baker Formal will be on Friday April 23rd. Pay $5. Cash bar.
5. Good job to old Social on the barbeque.
6. Athlete of the Week: The softball team and golfer with the hot wife.
7. Unathlete of the Week: Sean Torrez for not being at Baker a lot.
8. Unthanks if you did not sign up to see the Celtics Game. There are still 10 tickets left for $10 each. Email martijn@mit.edu before 5pm on Monday if you want to come. He says it will be "awesome!"

Old Business:

1. You are cordially invited to the Baker Formal.
2. Baker is not in trouble with the police, although they did walk through the dormitory at the end of MBPP.
3. Please do not steal anything from the Country Kitchen.
4. The television room is not going to be locked. Should we have sign ups for particular time slots? Scott determines that we will continue to use the white board to reserve times.
5. Not only is the card missing, but also the TV receiver might be broken. Scott will check up on both things and hopefully the TV room will be ready to go in no time.
6. Tyler and Scott are looking into new foosball tables.

New Business:

1. Student Groups in Baker:
You do in general have to ask permission from Scott Edinburgh (VPFS) or Jon Nolan (House Manager) to reserve general spaces in Baker House. Can people use the Baker name for their own purposes? Martijn (Baker President) thinks so. Matthew Webber (VPIR) thinks that the ratio of Baker to Non-Baker people is relevant when deciding whether something is truly a Baker event. How many Baker people were really involved in the Campus Crusade for Christ Study Break? A CCC poster that was torn down prior is brought to the meeting as evidence. Did the Christians try to assign a religion to Baker Dorm? Was it a postering violation? Martijn wants to define Baker events as events funded or organized by Baker government or tutors. John Wu, of Baker Judcomm, suggests that groups "request" postering rights. Martijn agrees. Hypothetical posed: if Alice (Baker Social) wanted to reserve Baker Dining, she would have to email Scott and ask for permission. Then she would also have to ask Matthew for permission to poster. Requesting space and requesting postering rights are separate issues. They involve two distinct individuals--Scott Edinburgh and Matthew Webber. If we put this information on the website, perhaps this would help. This policy is not to prevent or overly regulate events in Baker. This is to bring some structure so that no one is surprised at events when a lot of non-Bakerites show up. Instead we can party with them.

2. About Open Events:

$60 dollar missing TV card is an alright sacrifice for an open party, says Martijn. Before big events, we should send precautions, says Jennifer Peng. An example would be "hide your white board markers!!" Party proofing would be a good word for this. The social chairs should make the decision about open parties but they are both absent at this point.

Appropriations:

House Meeting Food to House Meeting Food $144.00 (Webber, Christi)
Cookies to Cookies $33.08 (Jennifer Peng, Tyler Callahan)
Miscellaneous to Miscellaneous $1299 (Scott Edinburgh, Christi)
MBPP to MBPP $935.99 (Alice Chou, Shambhavi)
Room and Floor Parties to Room and Floor Parties $80.39 (Alice, Christi)
BBQ to BBQ $361.24 (Alice, Shambhavi)
TNK to TNK $440.00 (Alice, Christi)
BBQ to BBQ $7.33 (Alice Chou, Webber)

3. Congratulations to everyone who got a room. Good job Rooming Chairs/President.
4. The Faculty Reception was a success. Professors practically swarmed Baker.
5. Athlete of the Week: Noto's mom, since it was Mother's Day, and we like beating that dead horse.

Old Business

1. Yeah, there's still a hole in the soda machine. It's being taken care of.

New Business

1. The Game Room key was missing, but now it's back. There will be a $5 fine for desk workers who don't use the proper checkout procedures. A new checkout policy will be implemented soonish.
2. Alum Newsletter: It might be too expensive to mail it this term, so it's probably going to be sent out electronically. Right now, the proposal for this news letter is stuck in bureaucracy. God damn bureaucrats.

Appropriations

1. $223.15 from Faculty Reception to Faculty Reception (Webber, Peng)
2. $141.36 from Faculty Reception to Faculty Reception (Webber, Peng)
3. $146.95 from Faculty Reception to Faculty Reception (Webber, Peng)
4. $9.39 from Faculty Reception to Faculty Reception (Webber, Peng)
5. $10.76 from Exec Food to Exec Food (Webber, Elysse)
6. $104 from RAC to RAC (Alice, Christi)
