

MINUTES OF THE SPECIAL BAKER HOUSE EXECCON MEETING of Sept. 8, 1980

This meeting was held for the purpose of discussing questions of the immediate crowding problem in Baker House.

Meeting called to order at 1:37pm by acting president Jeff Kletsky

attendance - VPFS VPIR JudC SocC AthC Tres Secr Parl
(President and VPRO arrived later in the meeting)

Due to an unexpectedly high number of freshmen requiring dormitory housing this year, all undergraduate dorms have been severely overcrowded. In addition to the "normal" overcrowding in Baker House (11's and 46's being used as quads instead of triples), further overcrowding has recently been imposed with the 06's being converted to quads. This action was taken last week (the second week of Rush), but as of this past weekend several freshmen remained in limbo, without housing assignments.

In the House lottery held this past Saturday, two extra freshmen were taken into Baker House. The net result of this action, as well as other confusions in the lottery, is that four doubles are now overcrowded into triples. The members of Execcon generally agreed that this level of crowding is unacceptable, and that should additional spaces in Baker become available (through cancellations by upperclassmen, for example), our first priority should be to uncrowd these doubles.

A resolution was thus drafted expressing our opinions on the overcrowding situation in Baker, to be transmitted to the Deans Office. (During the writing of this resolution, the President and VPRO arrived.)

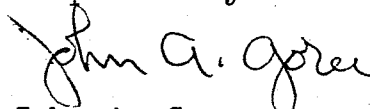

Resolution:

We consider the current overcrowding situation in Baker House to be unacceptable. In the event that any further spaces open up in Baker, we will not consider any additional assignments to Baker until all doubles have been uncrowded. We realize that the crowding of our "06" rooms is necessary as a temporary solution to the Institute-wide crowding problem; however, we expect that these rooms will be uncrowded in the future, and we will not allow these rooms to permanently remain overcrowded triples.

Motion by Bill Flarsheim, Second by Mike Colucci to adopt this resolution Passes 9-0-0.

Meeting adjourned at 2:08pm.

Respectfully submitted,

John A. Goree
Baker House Secretary

BAKER HOUSE EXECCON MEETING MINUTES Wed Feb 27, 1980
meeting called to order by President Mark Radka at 9:37 pm
attendance - all nine officers (Social Chairman was late)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mike - The Montreal Express and the Bash-Bazouks have both made the playoffs (hockey and basketball respectively). The Express beat LCA&SAE 4-1. (Ricardo Sitchin injured in heroic refereeing)

Rita - Anyone interested in being Parliamentarian see me. Anyone with ideas for R/O, and anyone who would be willing to host prospective frosh see me also.

Brian - New Year's Party will be Saturday, March 8 at 10:00.

~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ (sorry--nobody's perfect - ed.)

Dean Phillips - Anyone interested in being Dormcon Chairman see me. Also Congratulations to Silvano for advancing in the 2-on-2 basketball playoffs.

AGENDA

1) Approval of the minutes of the Tue Feb 19 Execon Meeting

Motion by Mike to chastise the Secretary (that's me) for getting the minutes out late ruled out of order. Motion by Brian, Second by Mike to approve said minutes Passes 8-0-1.

2) Approval of the minutes of the Mon Feb 25 House Meeting

Your friendly neighborhood secretary (that's me again) hadn't gotten those minutes out yet so this was postponed until the next Execon Meeting. (I don't want you people to get the idea that I'm always late...)

3) Election of Washcom Chairman

First the outgoing Chairman, Mark Zaretsky (you know the Zaretsky's) gave his annual report. We netted about $5700 on washers and dryers, lost about fifty on "ruined clothes". Regarding proposals for a new washroom, he feels that this would require a significant time investment from someone to do all the planning; upgrading current facilities seems more feasible. Election: Candidates were Rick Norton, Mark Hellinger, and Jim Askey. Jim Askey was elected.

Moose: "I changed a tire in a 3 piece suit."

Feldman: "What was the tire doing in a 3 piece suit?"

4) Appointment of Fire Marshal

Jeff Solof, the only one to express interest, was appointed. Nancy suggested also appointing him House Teddy Bear.

5) Appointment of Parking Chairman

Steve Levin, who did it last year, was reappointed.

(more on the back...)

Motion by Jeff, Second by Mike to suspend the Bylaws to discuss rental of the dining hall Passes 8-0-1.

New House One ~~xxxxx~~ (commonly known as Chocolate City) wanted to rent the dining hall for a party ~~xx~~ on Sat Mar 8. This is the night of our March Party, so they agreed to move it to Friday. Motion by Brian, Second by Bill to rent them the dining hall on Friday, March 7 Passes 8-0-1.

- 6) Discussion of Frank DiTaranto's and Dean Phillips' face shadows Motion by Bill, Second by Brian that Cathy Biber be required to grow a mustache Fails 4-5, President voting to break the tie.
- 7) TDC has sent us a bill for $28, claiming that 2 windows in their elevator shaft were broken by objects thrown from Baker. In the interest of better relations with them, Motion by Mike, Second by Nancy to appropriate $28 from TDC Window line item Passes 8-0-1.
- 8) Motion by Mike, Second by Jeff to appropriate $300 from the Technique Ad line item Passes 8-0-1. The ad was sent in last term, but we haven't paid the bill yet.
- 9) Motion by Nancy, Second by Sue to appropriate $125 for 3rd floor Jamaica Party on Feb 29 from Soc Floor Misc Passes 8-0-1.
- 10) Motion by Brian, Second by Jeff to appropriate $120 for 1st floor New Wave Party on Friday Mar 14 from Soc Floor Misc Passes 8-0-1.
- 11) Motion by Brian, Second by John to appropriate $125 from Happy Hours line item Passes 6-2-1. Brian: "Julie Foster has promised me that at least 25% of the people will be happy."
- 12) Motion by Jeff, Second by Mike to appropriate $39.95 from Snack Bar Radio line item Passes 8-0-1-3 (ex-Execon members Dan, Pete and Wayne S. Warren '81 voting no.) Dan: "Is there enough left over to get a cone of silence for the new piano?"
- 13) Discussion of Commons Committee and Mandatory Commons. Commons Committee is going to draft a list of suggestions for the administration regarding the new mandatory commons plan. Though it seems almost certain that we will get some ~~x~~ form of mandatory commons, the recent report left many things open. A Dining Advisory Board is going to be put together to implement the plan; spots will be open to students and we should definitely try to get a representative. Next ComCom meeting is Sunday (Mar 2) at 4:00 pm at which time our position will be considered. In general it seems that we will have to take the initiative in getting the ~~XXXXX~~ Deans to listen to us.
- 14) Setting the time and date of the next Execcon Meeting Motion by Brian, Second by Jeff to have the next Execcon Meeting Sunday, March 2 at 2:00 pm in the 4th West lounge Passes 4-0-5. Mark: "let's take Execcon to the people." (sounds familiar...)

Motion by Mike to Adjourn, not seconded or voted upon. Meeting adjourned by standing vote at approx. 11:30 pm.

"Oh I wish I was in the land of cotton--
Minutes there are soon forgotten,
Look away, look away, look away
Dixie land."

Tech McTool* tested the bars on his prison cell for the thousandth time. The damn place had been recently rennovated, though; there was no escape. He couldn't even remember how long he had been there. Every night they would take him from his cell, down those disgusting narrow hallways, to the interrogation room; then they would question him endlessly about those damn fire extinguishers. He knew the end was near. Where was James Bond when you needed him?

It had seemed such a harmless prank--a snowball attack on Burton. But those goddamn Burton Faggots had taken him prisoner. Knocked him unconscious with the butt of a ~~maxxxx~~ moriah. At first he had hoped for rescue, but he finally realized his friends would be too busy playing foosball to come and get him. Oh well...

As he trudged down that disgusting narrow hallway, his mind wandered back over his fondest memories of the Tute: His first flush from a Wellesley woman. His second flush from a Wellesley woman. His third flush from a Wellesley bitch...

"Hi. My name's Tech McTool--wanna dance?"

"Sure."

Tech breathed a sigh of relief as he escorted the cute Wellesley girl onto the dance floor. It had taken him half an hour to get up the nerve to ask her. BAKER HOUSE MINUTES OF THE LAST EXECCON MEETING Tue Feb 19, 1980
meeting called to order by President Silvano Brewster at 8:05 pm attendance - all ten officers and parliamentarian (Julie 5 min late)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Silvano - I am not announcing Room Assignments person yet, will do so at the House Mtg. Any other sophomores interested see me before Sunday.

Mark - 4 gallons of Jello! (') consumed at the toga party (Dan consumed at least one third.)

Joel - buy stereo (ed. note: I think he means from him).

Dean Phillips - anyone interested in working on Spring Weekend see me or Messrs Radka or Feldman. Any Junior interested in being Dormcon Chairman see me.

AGENDA

1) Approval of the minutes of the Sun Feb 10 Execcon Meeting.

Motion by Wayne, Second by Tim to approve the minutes and to mention that Dan is finally getting the hang of it Passes 8-0-0-1. (The last -1 is for Caren Baker, who couldn't make up her mind.)

1) Sparkling Oratory (?!) by Silvano

(Dan numbered this item "i" in his agenda. Figure it out.)

"We've had a very good year...thank you all...except for Caren."

Mark: "Under your leadership nobody resigned or was impeached."

2) Rental of the dining hall on Fri Feb 29

The BSU Social Cultural Committee requested the dining hall for a lecture-type activity. Motion by Mark, Second by Tim to rent them the dining hall under the usual conditions ($15 rental fee plus $100 deposit) passes 9-0-0-1. (By this time Julie Foster, the ex-Frosh Rep, had arrived--late to her last meeting.)

3) Piano purchase

Joel has found a refinished converted player-piano. $1150 needed for purchase, transportation, tuning and maintenance. Motion by Joel, Second by Mark to appropriate $1140 from Piano line item and $10 from Piano Maintenance Passes 9-0-0-1.

4) Motion by Dan, Second by Julie to appropriate $150.12 from

Secretarial Supplies plus $46.51 from Secretary Misc. Motion by Wayne, Second by Mark to divide the question Fails 2-5-2-1.

(I think Wayne had some complaint about bad bookkeeping policy.) Original motion Passes 7-1-1-1.

5) Motion by Dan, Second by ~~xxxx~~ Tim to appropriate $42.64 from Silkscreen line item Passes 7-1-1-1.

6) Motion by Mark, Second by Dan to appropriate $350 from March Party line item Passes 7-1-1-1. Mark promises that the March party will be held in March this year.

7) (left for the New Execcon; see item 15½) (ed. note: that's ok, we probably did a better job of it than they would have.)

8) Report of Outgoing Officers to Execcon

Frosh Rep: The Freshmen are still happy. Treasurer: We didn't spend enough. Much thanks to Mike Mainiero for pinball money.

Athletic Chmn: "We had a lot of IM teams; some teams won and some teams lost." Judcomm: No one pissing on the pinball machines.

President: "We tried to bring Execcon to the people."

All officers will give outgoing reports at Monday's House Mtg.

At this point the Gavel was passed to the Hon. Joel A. Foner, so that Silvano could make a Motion.

(OVER)

Motion by Silvano, Second by Steve to suspend the Bylaws to add discussion of appropriation of Technique Ad line item to agenda FAILS 0-8-1-1. This seems to have been some sort of symbolic gesture by the old Execcon--a last defiant act. In any case the Technique Ad will go into the next budget.

Gavel returned to Silvano

9) Motion by Steve, Second by Tim to Adjourn sine die.

At this emotional moment, President Brewster called for a roll call vote, as tradition demands.

Frosh Rep: No

Judcomm Chmn: Na fas skata

Secretary: I vote for Jello!

oloi sous

Treasurer: Pinball

VPIR: For good donuts, cheap, call 354-8944

Athletic Chmn: Dan's extensive forest

Social Chmn: Don't give up the ship

VPRO: I can't vote

VPFS: You can take this job and shove it, I'm not ~~xxxxxx~~ working here no more

President: Yes

Motion FAILS 1-1-7-1, but the new Execcon takes over anyway.

Gavel is passed from Silvano Brewster to Mark XXX ("Marcus")

meeting called to order (sort of) by President Mark Radka at ???
attendance - all new officers except Jeff Kletsky, who was sick

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mark - My first official act is to appoint Joel Foner as temporary acting VPFS. (But he said take this job and...?)

Anybody interested in being parking chairman or fire marshall see me soon.

Housewide Champagne study break Friday at 9:30 in the dining hall; a Nafi & Helena production.

Joel - The new VPFS will want a Dark Room Chairman, E-Lab Chairman, and equipment setup/breakdown people for parties. If interested see me or see Jeff when he arrives.

Brian - Jason's Jamaica Jungle Party (a 3rd floor party) is tentatively scheduled for the 29th.

Mike - Anyone interested in being in charge of foosball table (collecting $, keeping in repair) see me.

Rita - Anyone interested in being Parliamentarian see me soon.

Mark Zaretsky - Anyone interested in being Washcom see me this week.

AGENDA (Continued from the last Execcon)

10) Motion by Brian, Second by Mike to praise everone on the old Execcon, except the Secretary, on a job well done Passes 5-0-1-1. (This time the last -1 is Joel Foner) (private note: Dan, it's a thankless job.)

11) Election of Secretary

John Goree (that's me) was the only candidate. I was questioned briefly, and I promised never to right-justify the minutes.

Motion by Nancy, Second by Sue to go to a White Ballot. No objections. John Goree takes office and begins recording this shit.

12) Election of Treasurer

Candidates were Maria Petrocci, Mike Mainiero, Eric Leiser, and Bill Flarsheim. Candidates were questioned individually and voting was by secret ballot. Bill Flarsheim was elected.

Ricardo Sitchin destroyed the ballots ~~xxx~~ by eating them.

attendance - everyone on Execon plus Joel Eisen in a bathrobe

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Rita - anyone interested in hosting prospective frosh, and/or anyone with ideas for R/O please see me.

Brian - Anyone interested in forming an Impeach the Secretary Committee see me.

Mark - (1) We have tentatively scheduled a Happy Hour with Burton on March 13. (2) The Second Annual Nantasket Beach Swim is coming soon. See Dirk Baars for details. (3) Execon will have a group encounter session this Thursday--everyone will go into a little room and take off their clothes. (I can't wait -- ed.)

Jeff Solof - There will be a list of floor fire wardens at the desk soon.

Joel B. Eisen - The Undergraduate Academic Support Committee is working on restructuring Freshman Evaluations. Anyone with any ideas on this please contact me or Rita.

AGENDA

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Wed Feb 27 Execon Meeting
Motion by Nancy, Second by Sue to approve said minutes Passes 6-2-1. "Goree is an asshole" - Feldman.
- 2) Approval of the minutes of the Mon Feb 25 House Meeting
Motion by Rita, Second by kx Brian to approve. A $150 line item for "Culture Night" was omitted from the Social budget, both in the minutes and in the Budget the House voted on. The Social total, and thus the Grand total were off by $150. Amend by Bill to subtract $150 from Soc. total and $150 from Grand total Passes 6-0-3. Motion as amended (to approve with this correction) Passes 5-2-2.
- 3) Election of Parliamentarian
Charles Dale was the only ~~sueker~~ candidate. Motion by Rita, Second by John to appoint Charles Dale as Parliamentarian Passes 8-0-1.
- 4) Appointment of Baker Letter Editor
The Secretary (that's me) appointed Sue Downing (who is also Judcomm Chairwoman) to continue as Editor.
- 5) Motion by John, Second by Brian to appropriate $50 from Baker Letter line item Passes 8-0-1.
- 6) Motion by Mike, Second by Brian to appropriate $60 from Volleyball line item Passes 7-1-1.

(more on back...)

- 7) Motion by Brian, Second by Jeff to appropriate $150 from March Party line item Passes 7-1-1. ($350 was already appropriated.)
"All you social chairmen just get people drunk--it's disgusting"
- Jeff Solof.
- 8) Motion by Brian, Second by Jeff to appropriate $300 from Cocktail Party line item Passes 6-1-2. This party is tentatively scheduled for Friday, April 11.
- 9) Motion by Brian, Second by Jeff to appropriate $300 from Harbor Cruise line item Passes 7-1-1. The money is needed now for deposits on the band and the boat.
"I love spending money, guys." - Feldman
"I don't trust ~~XXXXXX~~ social chairmen" - Flarsheim
- 10) Motion by Mx Nancy, Second by Sue to have the next House Meeting Thursday, March 13 at 8:30 Passes 8-0-1.
- 11) Motion by Mike, Second by John to set the date for GA Rep. Elections to fill vacant spots to April 1 Passes 7-0-2.
(April Fools Day)
- 12) Motion by Mike, Second by Sue to have the next Execcon Mxx Meeting Saturday, March 8 at 11:00 am in the Dining Hall Passes 5-1-2 $\frac{1}{2}$ (Nancy counts half).

No motion made to adjourn, so we all sat around and bullshitted (or is that "bullshat") for a while. Meeting degenerated at about 3:15 pm.

Please have all agenda items for Saturday's meeting in box 3320 by noon Thursday.

I can't think of anything funny. I guess you'll have to impeach me.

The Bashi-Bazouks have made it past the first round of playoffs. Now they enter a double elimination round with two other teams for the A-league Basketball Championship. Their next two games are Wednesday and Thursday nights. Be there or be a nerd. And remember, Thursday night is Bazouk Picture Night--come and have your picture taken with a member of the team.

BAKER HOUSE. MINUTES OF THE LAST EXECCON MEETING. Tue Feb 19, 1980
meeting called to order by President Silvano Brewster at 8:05 pm
attendance - all ten officers and parliamentarian (Julie 5 min late)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Silvano - I am not announcing Room Assignments person yet, will do so at the House Mtg. Any other sophomores interested see me before Sunday.

Mark - 4 gallons of Jello'(!) consumed at the toga party (Dan consumed at least one third.)

Joel - buy stereo (ed. note: I think he means from him).

Dean Phillips - anyone interested in working on Spring Weekend see me or Messrs Radka or Feldman. Any Junior interested in being Dormcon Chairman see me.

AGENDA

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Sun Feb 10 Execcon Meeting.
Motion by Wayne, Second by Tim to approve the minutes and to mention that Dan is finally getting the hang of it Passes 8-0-0-1.
(The last -1 is for Caren Baker, who couldn't make up her mind.)
- i) Sparkling Oratory (?!) by Silvano
(Dan numbered this item "i" in his agenda. Figure it out.)
"We've had a very good year...thank you all...except for Caren."
Mark: "Under your leadership nobody resigned or was impeached."
- 2) Rental of the dining hall on Fri Feb 29
The BSU Social Cultural Committee requested the dining hall for a lecture-type activity. Motion by Mark, Second by Tim to rent them the dining hall under the usual conditions ($15 rental fee plus $100 deposit) passes 9-0-0-1. (By this time Julie Foster, the ex-Frosh Rep, had arrived--late to her last meeting.)
- 3) Piano purchase
Joel has found a refinished converted player-piano. $1150 needed for purchase, transportation, tuning and maintenance. Motion by Joel, Second by Mark to appropriate $1140 from Piano line item and $10 from Piano Maintenance Passes 9-0-0-1.
- 4) Motion by Dan, Second by Julie to appropriate $150.12 from Secretarial Supplies plus $46.51 from Secretary Misc. Motion by Wayne, Second by Mark to divide the question Fails 2-5-2-1.
(I think Wayne had some complaint about bad bookkeeping policy.)
Original motion Passes 7-1-1-1.
- 5) Motion by Dan, Second by ~~xxxx~~ Tim to appropriate $42.64 from Silkscreen line item Passes 7-1-1-1.
- 6) Motion by Mark, Second by Dan to appropriate $350 from March Party line item Passes 7-1-1-1. Mark promises that the March party will be held in March this year.
- 7) (left for the New Execcon; see item 15 $\frac{1}{2}$) (ed. note: that's ok, we probably did a better job of it than they would have.)
- 8) Report of Outgoing Officers to Execcon
Frosh Rep: The Freshmen are still happy. Treasurer: We didn't spend enough. Much thanks to Mike Mainiero for pinball money. Athletic Chmn: "We had a lot of III teams; some teams won and some teams lost." Judcomm: No one pissing on the pinball machines. President: "We tried to bring Execcon to the people."
All officers will give outgoing reports at Monday's House Mtg.

At this point the Gavel was passed to the Hon. Joel A. Foner, so that Silvano could make a Motion.

(OVER)

Motion by Silvano, Second by Steve to suspend the Bylaws to add discussion of appropriation of Technique Ad-line item to agenda FAILS 0-8-1-1. This seems to have been some sort of symbolic gesture by the old Execon--a last defiant act. In any case the Technique Ad will go into the next budget.

Gavel returned to Silvano

9) Motion by Steve, Second by Tim to Adjourn sine die.

At this emotional moment, President Brewster called for a roll call vote, as tradition demands.

Frosh Rep: No

Secretary: I vote for Jello!

Treasurer: Pinball

Athletic Chmn: Dan's extensive forest

Social Chmn: Don't give up the ship

VPFS: You can take this job and shove it, I'm not ~~xxxxxxx~~ working here no more

Judcomm Chmn: Na fas skata

oloi sous

VPIR: For good donuts, cheap, call 354-8944

VPRO: I can't vote

Motion FAILS 1-1-7-1, but the new Execon takes over anyway.

Gavel is passed from Silvano Brewster to Mark XXX ("Marcus")

meeting called to order (sort of) by President Mark Radka at ???
attendance - all new officers except Jeff Kletsky, who was sick

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mark - My first official act is to appoint Joel Foner as temporary acting VPFS. (But he said take this job and...?)

Anybody interested in being parking chairman or fire marshall see me soon.

Housewide Champagne study break Friday at 9:30 in the dining hall; a Nafi & Helena production.

Joel - The new VPFS will want a Dark Room Chairman, E-Lab Chairman, and equipment setup/breakdown people for parties. If interested see me or see Jeff when he arrives.

Brian - Jason's Jamaica Jungle Party (a 3rd floor party) is tentatively scheduled for the 29th.

Mike - Anyone interested in being in charge of foosball table (collecting $, keeping in repair) see me.

Rita - Anyone interested in being Parliamentarian see me soon.

Mark Zaretsky - Anyone interested in being Washcom see me this week.

AGENDA (Continued from the last Execon)

10) Motion by Brian, Second by Mike to praise everone on the old Execon, except the Secretary, on a job well done Passes 5-0-1-1. (This time the last -1 is Joel Foner) (private note: Dan, it's a thankless job.)

11) Election of Secretary

John Goree (that's me) was the only candidate. I was questioned briefly, and I promised never to right-justify the minutes.

Motion by Nancy, Second by Sue to go to a White Ballot. No objections. John Goree takes office and begins recording this shit.

12) Election of Treasurer

Candidates were Maria Petrocci, Mike Mainiero, Eric Leiser, and Bill Flarsheim. Candidates were questioned individually and voting was by secret ballot. Bill Flarsheim was elected.

Ricardo Sitchin destroyed the ballots ~~xxx~~ by eating them.

"The job doesn't take much mental ability--as Wayne has proven"

(NEXT PAGE)

13) Election of Elections Chairman
Candidates were Kathy Yelick, Lynn Schnapp, and Frank Ditaranto. After questioning, Kathy Yelick was elected.
Mike: "What would you do if an election was protested?"
Joel: "Shit 3 bricks."

14) Showering of new officers
The Secretary made a quick motion to adjourn, seconded by the Treasurer, but it was ignored and we all got wet (Kathy too). Thanks to all who helped, especially the ex-VPIR who elbowed me in the balls. There was a brief adjournment for us to dry off.

15) Judcomm screenings
No one to be screened

15½) Setting the agenda of the Mon Feb 25 (8pm) House Meeting
Motion by Mike, Second by Nancy to add Election of Charles Dale to the Commons Committee to the agenda passes 5-0-1-3. (The -3 now includes me and Bill, since we don't get votes till we're ratified.) Motion by Mike, Second by Rita to set the order of items on the agenda as (1)Football, (2)TV Games, (3)Election of Charles Dale, (4)Ratification of Election, (5)Outgoing officers' reports, ~~~~ (oops!) (6)Change of officers, (7)Other ratifications, (8)Judcomm elections, (9)Spring Budget Passes 5-0-1-3.

16) Budget Proposals
After much discussion, the proposed budget looks something like this: (I give only totals; for details be at the House Mtg)

Secretary:	$580	VPIR:	$995
Treasurer:	30	VPRO:	2795
Athletic Chmn:	1320	VFFS:	1625
Social Chmn:	5650	President:	563
Judcomm Chmn:	75	TOTAL:	$13633

Our total budgettable funds are about $15,500. Anyone with specific suggestions on expenditures can talk to the officer responsible before the Monday meeting. A complete copy of the proposed budget will be available at the House Meeting.

17) Motion by Bill, Second by Rita to set the next Execon Meeting for Wednesday, Feb 27th, at 8:30 pm, in the dining hall Passes 4-1-1-3. Feld: "I'm gonna die."

Tech McTool* tested the bars on his prison cell for the thousandth time. The damn place had been recently rennovated, though; there was no escape. He couldn't even remember how long he had been there. Every night they would take him from his cell, down those disgusting narrow hallways, to the interrogation room; then they would question him endlessly about those damn fire extinguishers. He knew the end was near. There was James Bond when you needed him?

It had seemed such a harmless prank--a snowball attack on Burton. But those goddamn Burton Faggots had taken him prisoner. Knocked him unconscious with the butt of a ~~xxxxxx~~ moriah. At first he had hoped for rescue, but he finally realized his friends would be too busy playing foosball to come and get him. Oh well...

"Okay, McTool--it's time." The guard was at the door. They were taking him to be executed. As he trudged down that disgusting narrow hallway, his mind wandered back over his fondest memories of the Tute: His first flush from a Wellesley woman. His second flush from a Wellesley woman. His third flush from a Wellesley bitch...

They sttd him up against a wall. "One last time," the B.F. asked, "who sprayed our people with fire extinguishers in your dining hall?"

x "I don't know." Tech was loyal to the end. They rolled out a howitzer and aimed it at his...

"Any final requests?" the guard asked.

"Only one," Tech replied; "I want to attend just one last

BAKER EXECCON MEETING

Agenda of the Execcon Meeting to be held Wed., Feb 27 at 9:30 pm

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Tue Feb 19 Execcon Meeting
- 2) Approval of the minutes of the Mon Feb 25 House Meeting
- 3) Election of Washcom Chairman - Mark
- 4) Appointment of Fire Marshall - Mark
- 5) Appointment of Parking Chairman - Mark
- 6) Discussion of Frank DiTaranto's and Dean Phillips' face shadows
- anonymous
- 7) Appropriation of $28 from TDC Window line item - Mark
- 8) Appropriation of $300 from Technique Ad line item - Mark
- 9) Appropriation of $125 for 3rd floor Jamaica Party from Soc Floor Misc - Brian
- 10) Appropriation of $100 for 1st floor New Wave Party - V. Quintana
- 11) Appropriation of $125 from Happy Hours line item - Brian
- 12) Appropriation of $75 from Snack Bar radio line item - Jeff
- 13) Discussion of Commons Committee and the Campus Dining Report - Mark
- 14) Setting the time and date of the next Execcon Meeting

Anyone may place items on the Execcon Meeting agendas by leaving me a note (John Goree, Box 3320). However it's usually a good idea to talk to the officer(s) involved before submitting an item (e.g., if you want $ for a party, talk to Barton). Also if you submit an item, be prepared to show up at the meeting to explain yourself.

* with apologies to Dave Heller, former Agenda Secretary and Attorney at Law.

"Well, Billy-Bob - these Yankees shore are strange."
 "Y'all ain't kiddin, Bobby-Joe. Why--theyhve evun got runnin water and everythin!"
 "Why the heck did we come to this school, Billy-Bob? It's too durn cold fo' me."
 "Sho-nuf! Y'know, the thing I really cain't figger out is this 'House Govinment'. What the hell is it fer?"
 "I ain't shore. Clear as I can figger, they gets these nine people and sets 'em down at a table and then they tell jokes."
 "Yeah--and the strangist part is theyhve got this one guy who writes it all down. Then he puts it in our mailboxes and w calls it

BAKER HOUSE EXECCON MEETING MINUTES Wed Feb 27, 1980
 meeting called to order by President Mark Radka at 9:37 pm
 attendance - all nine officers (Social Chairman was late)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mike - The Montreal Express and the Bashi-Bazouks have both made the playoffs (hockey and basketball respectively). The Express beat LCA&SAE 4-1. (Ricardo Sitchin injured in heroic refereeing)
 Rita - Anyone interested in being Parliamentarian see me. Anyone with ideas for R/O, and anyone who would be willing to host prospective frosh see me also.
 Brian - New Year's Party will be Saturday, March 8 at 10:00.
~~XXXXXXXX~~ (sorry--nobody's perfect - ed.)
 Dean Phillips - Anyone interested in being Dormcon Chairman see me. Also Congratulations to Silvano for advancing in the 2-on-2 basketball playoffs.

AGENDA

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Tue Feb 19 Execcion Meeting
 Motion by Mike to chastise the Secretary (that's me) for getting the minutes out late ruled out of order. Motion by Brian, Second by Mike to approve said minutes Passes 8-0-1.
- 2) Approval of the minutes of the Mon Feb 25 House Meeting
 Your friendly neighborhood secretary (that's me again) hadn't gotten those minutes out yet so this was postponed until the next Execcion Meeting. (I don't want you people to get the idea that I'm always late...)
- 3) Election of Washcom Chairman
 First the outgoing Chairman, Mark Zaretsky (you know the Zaretsky's) gave his annual report. We netted about $5700 on washers and dryers, lost about fifty on "ruined clothes". Regarding proposals for a new washroom, he feels that this would require a significant time investment from someone to do all the planning; upgrading current facilities seems more feasible.
 Election: Candidates were Rick Norton, Mark Hellinger, and Jim Askey. Jim Askey was elected.
 Moose: "I changed a tire in a 3 piece suit."
 Feldman: "What was the tire doing in a 3 piece suit?"
- 4) Appointment of Fire Marshal
 Jeff Solof, the only one to express interest, was appointed. Nancy suggested also appointing him House Teddy Bear.
- 5) Appointment of Parking Chairman
 Steve Levin, who did it last year, was reappointed.

(more on the back...)

Motion by Jeff, Second by Mike to suspend the Bylaws to discuss rental of the dining hall Passes 8-0-1.

New House One ~~xxxxx~~ (commonly known as Chocolate City) wanted to rent the dining hall for a party ~~on~~ on Sat Mar 8. This is the night of our March Party, so they agreed to move it to Friday. Motion by Brian, Second by Bill to rent them the dining hall on Friday, March 7 Passes 8-0-1.

- 6) Discussion of Frank DiTaranto's and Dean Phillips' face shadows Motion by Bill, Second by Brian that Cathy Biber be required to grow a mustache Fails 4-5, President voting to break the tie.
- 7) TDC has sent us a bill for $28, claiming that 2 windows in their elevator shaft were broken by objects thrown from Baker. In the interest of better relations with them, Motion by Mike, Second by Nancy to appropriate $28 from TDC Window line item Passes 8-0-1.
- 8) Motion by Mike, Second by Jeff to appropriate $300 from the Technique Ad line item Passes 8-0-1. The ad was sent in last term, but we haven't paid the bill yet.
- 9) Motion by Nancy, Second by Sue to appropriate $125 for 3rd floor Jamaica Party on Feb 29 from Soc Floor Misc Passes 8-0-1.
- 10) Motion by Brian, Second by Jeff to appropriate $120 for 1st floor New Wave Party on Friday Mar 14 from Soc Floor Misc Passes 8-0-1.
- 11) Motion by Brian, Second by John to appropriate $125 from Happy Hours line item Passes 6-2-1. Brian: "Julie Foster has promised me that at least 25% of the people will be happy."
- 12) Motion by Jeff, Second by Mike to appropriate $39.95 from Snack Bar Radio line item Passes 8-0-1-3 (ex-Execcon members Dan, Pete and Wayne S. Warren '81 voting no.) Dan: "Is there enough left over to get a cone of silence for the new piano?"
- 13) Discussion of Commons Committee and Mandatory Commons Commons Committee is going to draft a list of suggestions for the administration regarding the new mandatory commons plan. Though it seems almost certain that we will get some ~~x~~ form of mandatory commons, the recent report left many things open. A Dining Advisory Board is going to be put together to implement the plan; spots will be open to students and we should definitely try to get a representative. Next ComCom meeting is Sunday (Mar 2) at 4:00 pm at which time our position will be considered. In general it seems that we will have to take the initiative in getting the ~~XXXXX~~ Deans to listen to us.
- 14) Setting the time and date of the next Execcon Meeting Motion by Brian, Second by Jeff to have the next Execcon Meeting Sunday, March 2 at 2:00 pm in the 4th West lounge Passes 4-0-5. Mark: "let's take Execcon to the people." (sounds familiar...)

Motion by Mike to Adjourn, not seconded or voted upon. Meeting adjourned by standing vote at approx. 11:30 pm.

Minutes there are soon forgotten,
Look away, look away, look away

"Well, sir, my life just seems to be a total piece of shit."

Tech had never thought he would end up in the MIT Psychiatrists' Office. That was just for the kooks, not normal people like me - he had ~~xxxx~~ always said to himself. ~~A~~ But now there he was--lying on the couch, staring at a roach on the ceiling while an unshaven "doctor" with beads took notes.

"Why didn't you come to me sooner, I needed the fertilizer," the doctor replied. "But seriously, Mr. McTool, how do you mean that -- 'shit'?"

"Well, doc, it's like this: I've been flushed by every woman I've ever met except one--and she turned out to be the president of GAMIT in drag. But it's not only that--it seems like I spend all my time working, but I'm on warning and all my professors hate me. My friends think I'm an asshole so I ~~xxx~~ get drunk every night. The highlight of my weekends is the ISC movies and the highlight of my weekdays is the napkin fights at dinner. I feel like I've been nowhere and I'm going nowhere fast."

"Sounds perfectly normal to me."

"Yeah, but you don't know the half of it. The one thing that really pisses me off is that they won't even print the items I submit on the

- 9) Appropriation of ~~$500~~ $300 from Harbor Cruise line item - Brian
- 10) Setting the time and date of the next House Meeting
- 11) Setting a date for election to fill vacant GA Rep positions
- 12) Setting the time and date of the next Execon Meeting

Once again it seems I am left with part of a page to fill. I guess I'd better either quit flaming all together, or learn to flame longer. I would like to announce that applications for Secretarial Wench are now being taken; submit to Box 3320 or apply in person to room 332.

"Four in the morning, crapped out, Yawning--longing my life away" But you see Paul Simon was awake because he wanted to be (or maybe it was some woman.) As for me, well after such massive overdoses of caffeine who can sleep, anyway?

Which brings me to my final point: Who writes this crap, anyway? And when was the last time you emptied a full moriah down your best friend's pants? And when was the last time you yelled "Your mother wears Army boots" out the window.

Any comments, positive or negative, about my minutes/agendas ~~xxxx~~ may be placed in Box 3320. I'll probably ignore them; but then again, maybe not.

OTR,

"Well, Dean Flamer--how are the wife and kids?"

"Oh, cut the crap Dean Filips! What is it you wanted to see me about?"

"Well, it's those children again. You know--the ones over on West Campus."

"Oh, them. Did they put a ring on some statue's finger again?"

"No, no; it's worse than that. This time it's--profanity."

"And is that a concern of the Deans' Office?"

"Well, in this case it has gone too far. We must stop it."

"What--they're swearing in the halls?"

"No."

"Writing on bathroom walls?"

"No."

"Calling their professors naughty names?"

BAKER HOUSE DAMN EXECCON MEETING MINUTES Sun Mar 2, 1980
meeting called to order by President Mark Radka at 2:07 pm
attendance - everyone on Execcon plus Joel Eisen in a bathrobe

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Rita - anyone interested in hosting prospective frosh, and/or anyone with ideas for R/O please see me.

Brian - Anyone interested in forming an Impeach the Secretary Committee see me.

Mark - (1) We have tentatively scheduled a Happy Hour with Burton on March 13. (2) The Second Annual Nantasket Beach Swim is coming soon. See Dirk Baars for details. (3) Execcon will have a group encounter session this Thursday--everyone will go into a little room and take off their clothes. (I can't wait -- ed.)

Jeff Solof - There will be a list of floor fire wardens at the desk soon.

Joel B. Eisen - The Undergraduate Academic Support Committee is working on restructuring Freshman Evaluations. Anyone with any ideas on this please contact me or Rita.

AGENDA

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Wed Feb 27 Execcon Meeting
Motion by Nancy, Second by Sue to approve said minutes Passes 6-2-1. "Goree is an asshole" - Feldman.
- 2) Approval of the minutes of the Mon Feb 25 House Meeting
Motion by Rita, Second by ~~xx~~ Brian to approve. A $150 line item for "Culture Night" was omitted from the Social budget, both in the minutes and in the Budget the House voted on. The Social total, and thus the Grand total were off by $150. Amend by Bill to subtract $150 from Soc. total and $150 from Grand total Passes 6-0-3. Motion as amended (to approve with this correction) Passes 5-2-2.
- 3) Election of Parliamentarian
Charles Dale was the only ~~sueker~~ candidate. Motion by Rita, Second by John to appoint Charles Dale as Parliamentarian Passes 8-0-1.
- 4) Appointment of Baker Letter Editor
The Secretary (that's me) appointed Sue Downing (who is also Judcomm Chairwoman) to continue as Editor.
- 5) Motion by John, Second by Brian to appropriate $50 from Baker Letter line item Passes 8-0-1.
- 6) Motion by Mike, Second by Brian to appropriate $60 from Volleyball line item Passes 7-1-1.

(more on back...)

- 7) Motion by Brian, Second by Jeff to appropriate $150 from March Party line item Passes 7-1-1. ($350 was already appropriated.)
"All you social chairmen just get people drunk--it's disgusting"
- Jeff Solof.
- 8) Motion by Brian, Second by Jeff to appropriate $300 from Cocktail Party line item Passes 6-1-2. This party is tentatively scheduled for Friday, April 11.
- 9) Motion by Brian, Second by Jeff to appropriate $300 from Harbor Cruise line item Passes 7-1-1. The money is needed now for deposits on the band and the boat.
"I love spending money, guys." - Feldman
"I don't trust ~~XXXXXX~~ social chairmen" - Flarsheim
- 10) Motion by ~~xx~~ Nancy, Second by Sue to have the next House Meeting Thursday, March 13 at 8:30 Passes 8-0-1.
- 11) Motion by Mike, Second by John to set the date for GA Rep. Elections to fill vacant spots to April 1 Passes 7-0-2.
(April Fools Day)
- 12) Motion by Mike, Second by Sue to have the next Execon ~~xxx~~ Meeting Saturday, March 8 at 11:00 am in the Dining Hall Passes 5-1-2 $\frac{1}{2}$ (Nancy counts half).

No motion made to adjourn, so we all sat around and bullshitted (or is that "bullshat") for a while. Meeting degenerated at about 3:15 pm.

Please have all agenda items for Saturday's meeting in box 3320 by noon Thursday.

I can't think of anything funny. I guess you'll have to impeach me.

The Bashi-Bazouks have made it past the first round of playoffs. Now they enter a double elimination round with two other teams for the A-league Basketball Championship. Their next two games are Wednesday and Thursday nights. Be there or be a nerd. And remember, Thursday night is Bazouk Picture Night--come and have your picture taken with a member of the team.

"Hi. My name's Tech McTool--wanna dance?"

"Sure."

Tech breathed a sigh of relief as he escorted the cute Wellesley girl onto the dance floor. It had taken him half an hour to get up the nerve to ask her. Then another twenty minutes for the guys hovering around her to clear away. These Wellesley parties were always so depressing. But she was cute! If only...

"Hey, thanks a lot. By the way, my name's Sue. Do you go to Harvard?"

"No--M.I.T."

"Oh--that's too bad." Oh shit, here we go again. He thought fast.

"Would you like another beer?"

"I don't drink, actually. But a ginger ale would be nice." Wow! - this could be the one. They walked over towards the bar. Tech was sweating profusely. He had to say something.

"So--what do you think of those Red Sox?"

"Sorry, I hate football." More sweat. Try again.

"Hey, let's go sit somewhere."

"Actually I'd rather stand; but let's go over there--it's less crowded." Why is she toying with my mind, he wondered. One more try.

"Say, do you know Shelli McDonald? I think she lives here, too."

"Oh--that bitch! I haven't spoken to her since she stole my boyfriend a year ago." OK Tech, let her make the next move.

Silence. Then --

"So, what frat did you say you were from?" The kiss of death.

"Uh - well - uh - actually, um, I'm from a - a - a dorm."

"Listen, I think my roommate's calling me. Have to leave--bye."

"But - wait - but - can I call - " She was gone... "Well," he said to himself, "chalk another one up to experience. I guess all that's left for me to do now is to ~~xxx~~ go home and read the "Beats me. I wanted to put MacGregor down as first choice, but you talked me out of it--remember?"

"Yeah--I didn't think it was gonna be this bad, though. All those roaches; the cooking smells in the halls; the furniture falling apart..."

"...the cracks in the walls; the plumbing; those hideous bricks..."

"Yeah. And the desk is always out of roach motels..."

"And we never have enough heat in the hallways..."

"And there's not enough light in the rooms..."

"And the bathrooms are always out of toilet paper--"

"Wait a minute: that's never been a problem for me. Haven't you learned by now--when they run out of toilet paper just use the

- (6) Country Kitchen. We want a country kitchen installed. Client Team has requested this, but they will probably get no money for this summer. ~~xxx~~ We will try to get it as part of the commons plan, to be put in the E-lab (E-lab moved to dormphone room).
- (7) Seconds. The current plan calls for a "one seconds" system for entrees, claiming it allows them to plan better. We want an unlimited seconds system. This would be fairer to people with big appetites, and would give people more choice.
- (8) Scaling down point plans. The current plan requires frosh to take a 15 meal/week equivalent, which is too much. We want to encourage frosh to go out more, and be real people. We want each point plan reduced by 50 points, and a 210 point plan added.
- (9) Baker dining hall only for Baker residents. Mark gave his views: that this would not be in the spirit of Baker. We have always been an "open" house, and it is good for relations with other living groups to remain that way. ~~xx~~ We want Baker to remain open to all students, and ~~xxxxxxx~~ other dorms to do the same (especially McCormick).
- (10) We want to go on record as still being opposed to Mandatory Commons in principle, for ourselves and for other dorms.

MOTION by Brian Feldman that VPIR Nancy Greenbaum draft a letter with the above demands/suggestions. Many felt that Commons Committee should also be involved in writing said letter.

AMEND by C.T. Kuo that the letter be jointly authored by Nancy, President Mark Radka, and ComCom co-chairmen Irene Goldberg and Lina Janavicius PASSES 29-7. Motion as amended PASSES 32-8.

Meeting adjourned at approx 10:30? pm.

"Holy shit, Batman!" cried Robin from the passengers' seat of the Batmobile, as he buckled his bat-belt-buckle; "Are we ever in luck. This week along with the bat-House-meeting-minutes it looks like we ~~xxx~~ also got the

BAT-BAKER HOUSE EXECCON MEETING MINUTES Sat Mar 15, 1980
meeting called to order by President Mark Radka at 1:05 pm
attendance - Pres VPIR SocC AthC Tres Secr Parl plus Fire Marshal and ~~xx~~ Elections Chairman late: Judcomm Chairman

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mike - Hockey playoffs are Tuesday night.
Bill - Execcon is spending your money at an astounding pace.
Brian - The Burton happy hour was a definite success.
Rita (in absentia) - Anyone interested in hosting prospective frosh or with ideas for R/O please see me.
John - Rita said that if enough people respond to the above announcement she'll come down to my room and give me a big hug.
Mark - Theta Chi will ~~xx~~ be coming over for a happy hr and ~~xx~~dinner on Apr 4. Anyone interested in hosting a frat guy for dinner see me. Also new room rates will be posted soon across from desk.

AGENDA

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Sat Mar 8 Execcon Mtg.
Apparently no one read them, so they had no complaints. Motion by Mike, Second by Bill to approve said minutes PASSES 2-1-3.

- 2) Appointment of Presidential Wench
Motion by Mike, Second by me to appoint ~~xx~~ Osborn pres. wench ruled out of order. Mark says he's "studying the matter."
 - 3) Motion by Mike, Second by Brian to appropriate $150 from Softball line item for balls and bats Passes 4-0-2.
"We need a lot of balls in this house" - Nancy.
 - 4) Motion by Brian, Second by Nancy to appropriate $80 from Floor Soc Misc for John Border's 5th floor party Passes 5-0-1.
 - 5) Motion by Nancy, Second by John to appropriate $30 from Stereo-TV line item for cassette tapes Passes 4-0-2.
 - 6) Motion by Brian, Second by JG to appropriate $199.50 from Spring Weekend line item. Amend by Bill, Second by Brian to change the amount to $199.48 Passes ~~xxxx~~ 4-0-2. Amended motion Passes 5-0-1
- Motion by Nancy to adjourn, Second by Mike. Fails 3-3 so Nancy ~~xxxx~~ walked out. Mark then appointed Sandy McCarley temporary VPIR. Announcement by Sandy: "All the Deans I've come across are happy" Nancy returns, and Sue Downing arrives
- 7) Discussion of changes to preferential voting
Kathy Yelick explained some of the discrepancies of the Bylaws on election procedures, ~~xx~~ namely (1) GA Rep elections are supposed to be held with Execon elections, (2) Wording ~~xx~~ in the Bylaws suggests that only freshmen may vote for floor social chairmen, and (3) the Dormcon preferential system is not as we do it, and is ambiguous in case of a tie. Changes to the Bylaws will be drafted (by yours truly) and voted on by Execon.
 - 8) Discussion of the role of House Fire Marshal
Jeff Solof ~~xxxx~~ doesn't know what to do with the job. I suggested he look into gettin alarms which don't go off so easily. If anyone has concrete suggestions, I'm sure he'll listen.
 - 9) Discussion of the role of House Teddy Bear
President Radka felt that Jeff had a conflict of interest, being both Fire Marshal and Teddy Bear, so he appointed Dan D'Eramo as the new House Teddy Bear.
 - 10) Mark appointed Wayne Seltzer as House Energy Czar. Congratulations!
 - 11) Discussion of dining hall rental policy
(Gavel goes to Jeff so Mark can talk) The latest BSU party caused us some grief when their posters were drug-suggestive and also didn't mention BSU explicitly on the poster. To avoid problems in the future, we will inform all off-campus groups, or those that want alcohol at a party (or any others at our discretion) that: To rent the dining hall they must (1) Get permission in writing from the Deans' Office, (2) Notify the CP's and have at least one CP present, (3) Identify who is having the party on their posters, and (4) Restrict people to the dining hall and the bathrooms. (Gavel returns to Mark.)
 - 12) Motion by JG, Second by Nancy to have the next Execon Meeting Sat Mar 22 at 3:00 am by the pinball machines, and the one after ~~xx~~ that on Tue Apr 1 at 9:00 pm in the Dining Hall Passes 6-0-1.

Meeting adjourned at 2:00 pm.

Irregularly Submitted,

Tech McTool paid the cab driver and stepped out onto Amherst Alley. "Damnit--I forgot my suitcase!" he cried as the taxi sped off. Refusing to let a little thing like that get him down on his first day back, he ~~xxxx~~ walked happily into the dorm. Having forgotten his combination, he asked the catatonic desk worker and opened his mailbox. The usual post-vacation collection of shit lay stuffed within. He pulled it out and began to sort through it. First was a note with a piece of used chewing gum stuck to it. It said: "Tech--thanx for letting me borrow the gum; I don't need it anymore. --Nancy" The latest issue of "Seventeen" magazine was next. The cover read: "Ruy Cardoso tells all: Julie Foster threatens to sue..." Then there was a phone bill. He opened it: $300. "Wait a minute--I don't have a phone!" thought Tech; but he refused to let it get him down. There was also another valentine --returned unopened. "Well, I'll use it again next year," he said. Then another bill from Student Accounts: "Pay $25,000 now or we'll kill your family," it said. Finally there was another stack of rejection letters for summer jobs.

~~xxxx~~ Undaunted, Tech walked away from the mailboxes smiling. It had been a good day: He was back home with his friends. He had his favorite stick of gum back. And best of all, the damn Secretary had forgotten to give him a copy of the latest

To all my loyal readers (both of you):

, As I'm sure you have all noticed by now, these minutes are coming to you almost 24 hrs after the time when you had a right to expect them. I feel, of course, that I owe you all an explanation. I can just imagine you all waiting anxiously at your mailboxes for this piece of trash, as it seems to be one of the few things which brightens up your otherwise dreary lives. I do apologize. My excuse is simply this: I am a lazy asshole. There--I said it. I hope you all feel better now. I know I do. Anyway, enough of this bullshit. Here it is at last--your own personal copy of the

BAKER HOUSE EXECCON MEETING MINUTES Tuesday, April Fools Day, 1980
meeting called to order by President Mark Radka at 9:10 pm
attendance - Pres VPIR VPRO SocC AthC Secr + Elections Chairperson, Fire Marshal and Ex-Secretary. late: VPFS JudC Tres

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Nancy - President John G. Kemeny of Dartmouth (who is also chairman of the Presidential Committee investigating 3 Mile Island) will be here following his address on Apr 11 for a cocktail party followed by dinner.

Jeff Solof - The Spring Break Blaze was a complete success; thanks to all who participated.

Brian - (1) There is a signup for Spring Weekend events on the board across from the elevator. (2) The Pub is Sat Apr 12. Any complaints--read the sign I have posted.

Mike - Anybody that wants to play softball but didn't sign up talk to me.

Mark - Anyone that thinks the current distribution of room rents ~~xxxxxx~~ among different types of rooms is unfair should see me or Day ("Ayatollah") D'Eramo.

AGENDA

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Sat Mar 15 Execcon Meeting. Nobody remembered that far back. Motion by Mike, Second by Nancy to approve said minutes Passes 3-1-2.
- 2) Approval of the minutes of the Thur Mar 13 House Meeting. Nobody ~~gives~~ gives a damn. Motion by Nancy, Second by Brian to do for item 2 what we did for item 1 Passes 5-0-1. Does anybody read these things??
- 3) Rental of Dining Hall to MIT Cheerleaders. They wanted the Dining Hall Thursday night 8:00 - 8:30 for an organizational meeting. Motion by Barton, Second by Mike to rent them the Dining Hall and waive the usual $15 fee Passes 5-0-1.
- 4) Motion by Rita, Second by Feldstadt to appropriate $50 from R/O Misc for the MIT Residence Book Passes 4-0-2.

Announcement by President Radka: "Nancy failed a tutored exam tonight with a 60"

- 5) Motion by Brian, Second by Mike to appropriate $200 from Cocktail Parties line item for cocktail parties on Apr 11 and Apr 18 Passes 4-0-2. I think Feldman is starting to enjoy spending money.
- 6) Motion by Brian, Second by JG to appropriate $300 from Pub line item for (guess what?) the Pub (~~xx~~ Apr 12) Passes 4-1-1.

(there's more fun on the back...)

At this point Nancy left, probably mad about something, causing us to lose a quorum. Mark semi-appointed Dean Phillips temporary VPIR, but while we were congratulating Dean and trying to shower him, Mark ruled the appointment out of order, and Nancy returned.

- 7) Motion by Nancy, Second by Brian to appropriate $125 from Happy Hrs line item for happy hrs for the remainder of the term Passes 3-1-2.
- 8) Motion by Nancy, Second by Barton that ~~XXX~~ JG (that's me) "learn to type tonight". Discussion: "This is impossible" - Radka. Motion Fails 2-2-2. I guess I'll never ~~learn learn learn~~ learn.
- 9) Motion by Brian, Second by Mike to appropriate $.02 from Stereo-TV line item for TV antenna rotor Fails 3-3. Motion by Nancy, Second by JG to appropriate $83.75 from above for above Passes 3-2-1, ~~XXXXXX~~ President voting to break tie.
- 10) Consideration of changes to Execcon Bylaws
While discussing the proposed changes, another problem was noticed concerning ties in elections where more than one position is being filled (e.g., Judcomm and GA Rep.) An obvious solution was beyond us at the time, so a heated discussion ensued. Motion by Jeff, Second by Mike to approve the proposed changes with the stipulation that Execcon discuss this newly discovered problem of ties at a future date. Mark brought up the established policy of not making motions to require Execcon to do something at a future date. A discussion of the Parliamentary procedure involved followed. Since I was getting quite fed up, and had work to do, Motion by JG, Second by Brian to table the above motion until the next meeting. Motion to table Fails 2-3-4 (by this time the late members--not meaning deceased--had arrived, so we had all 9 present.) ~~xx~~ Jeff's original motion ruled out of order. Motion by Nancy, Second by Mike to approve the proposed changes Passes 8-0-1. See the case across from the mailboxes if you're curious as to what the changes were.
- 11) Motion by Jeff, Second by Nancy to have the next Execcon Meeting on Monday, Apr 7 at 10:00 pm in the Dining Hall Passes 5-1-3.

Announcement by Bill: Due to a computer error of our bank, we now are $500 richer than we should be.

Announcement by Mark: We have recently learned that our washers and dryers are insured against most damages (fire, flood, etc.) by MIT; thus we do not need all $4500 of our washer/dryer fund. We will probably make a decision soon as to how much, if any, of this $4500 we want to rebudget, and for what.

Meeting disbanded at about 10:00 pm.

 These minutes are hereby officially dedicated to Paul Malchodi, ex-Judcomm Chairman, ex-Crew Jock, and leading candidate for Baker House Mascot.

Dear Penthouse Forum,

I am a student at a small, New England technical university, and an avid reader of the Forum. Erotic sexual adventures here are usually few and far between, so I never thought I would have an experience worth writing to you about. Last term, however, I met a girl who made me forget I'd ever heard of NGL!

I was studying in my dormitory late one night with the door open, when a stunning brunette with a camera around her neck peered into my room. She claimed to be an architecture student who wanted to come in to "admire my bricks." Of course I invited her in. She sat down and we began to talk, and it quickly became obvious that her mind was not on bricks! I couldn't help staring at her two big, beautiful brown eyes as we chatted. She told me her name was Candy.

After about ten minutes of conversation I could stand it no longer. Her personality was driving me crazy. I walked over to the door and closed it slowly. She smiled at me and I leaned down to kiss her. "Wait," she said, stopping me; "have you got something?" At first I was confused, but then she said "You know-- I don't want to get pregnant." Relieved that this was her only concern, I opened the top drawer under my desk. I kept a supply there for situations just like this one. "This should take care of things," I said, and she smiled as I showed her the

MINUTES OF THE BAKER EXECCON MEETING Monday, April 7, 1980

We had trouble getting a quorum because VPFS Jeff Kletsky was playing foosball. Under the bold leadership of President Radka, we showered the upstart freshman for lateness (and for being a freshman). Meeting finally called to order by President Mark Radka at 10:17 pm.

attendance - Pres VPFS VPRO VPIR SocC AthC Secr Parl + Ex-Secr and, of course, Fire Marshal

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jeff - I thoroughly resent being showered.

Brian - (1) Doug White and Jason Kaldis tied for Soc Chairman's Man of the Week. (2) Burton is holding a Potter's Four this Thursday at 9:30 in their Dining Hall in reciprocation for the Happy Hour we invited them to. Free beer and munchies. Please come. (3) The PUB is this Saturday. Any acts see Joel Foner; anyone who wants to help out see me.

Jeff Solof - Fire extinguishers may be checked out from my room on Thursday before 9:00 pm for the Burton Potter's Four.

Barton - (again) Tickets for the Spring Weekend Party on Sat Apr 26 are available from floor social chairpeople.

Nancy - whoever took my wallet and checkbook: "I hate you!"

Mike - (1) Anybody who wants to play IM Rugby see me immediately. (2) Signups for IM Chess and Weightlifting due by the end of this week. (3) Start training now for the IM track meet. (4) Anyone who wants to go with me to buy ping-pong stuff, let me know. (5) Anyone who might be interested in being IM Badminton/Football or Tennis Managers for next Fall, see me.

Eric Buckman - Sue Berg is the new Assistant Snack Bar Manager.

Croc - We're getting a new washer, so don't use the one on the left this Thursday.

AGENDA

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Tue Apr 1 Execcon Meeting
Motion by Jeff, Second by Mike to approve said minutes Passes 5-0-2, despite objection from the Ex-Secretary, Day D'Eramo.
- 2) Rental of Dining Hall to Black Dance Troupe
Motion by Jeff, Second by Bart to rent them the Dining Hall on Fri Apr 11 "under the usual conditions" Passes 6-0-1.
- 3) Rental of the Dining Hall to ~~XXX~~ AKA Postponed because they had no representative at the meeting.
- 4) Motion by Brian, Second by Jeff to appropriate $350 from Ping-Pong line item Passes 5-0-2. This $$ will go mostly towards a new ping-pong table; also to new balls and paddles.
- 5) Motion by Jeff, Second by Brian G. Feldman to appropriate $50 from Social Misc for cups (cups?!) Passes 3-1-3.
- 6) Discussion of room rates
Basically, the way our room rates get set is this: MIT calculates how much money they want from Baker House as a whole (which amounts to setting an "average" room rate). It is then up to us, ~~Ex~~ i.e. the House, to decide the rents for specific rooms. Mark and Dan the Man D'Eramo reviewed ~~xxxx~~ our old rates and came up with some new ones which they feel ~~ix~~ are "fairer". (These rates were posted across from the desk.) Motion by Brian, Second by Jeff to recommend these rates to the House Passes 6-0-1. These rates will be discussed and voted on at the April House Meeting.

(more on the back...)

- 7) Motion by Jeff, Second by Mike to have the April House Meeting on Wednesday, April 23 at 8:00 pm (in the Dining Hall) Passes 5-1-1. Agenda will be set at the next ~~Exxx~~ Execon Meeting.
- 8) Motion by Jeff, Second by Brian to have the next Execon Meeting on Monday, Apr 14 at 10:00 pm in the elevator Passes 5-0-~~2~~x 2.

Motion by Nancy, Second by Mike not to rent the Dining Hall to AKA because they didn't show up Passes 4-1-2.

Next the hon. Jim Askey, our Washcom Chairman, took the floor to explain some of the problems we're having with our washers. What followed was rather strange...

Nancy lit up a cigarette to listen to Mr. Askey, and meanwhile everyone was flaming while Croc was trying to talk. Total bedlam was beginning to erupt when Fire Marshal Jeffry R. Solof left the meeting. He returned a few seconds later with a fire extinguisher and ordered all flaming to cease. Then sensing a fire hazard with Nancy's cigarette, he opened fire in the general direction of our VPIR, and proceeded to chase her around the Dining Hall until she was thoroughly wet. Nancy was quite upset, and hopped from lap to lap in an attempt to get warm.

Motion by Jeff, Second by JG to commend Jeff Solof for his prompt action Passes 3-1-3.

- 9) Discussion of, and practice in the procedure for adjourning meetings. Unfortunately, everyone had left by the time we got to this item. Sorry.

Meeting disbanded at approx. 11:00 pm/

Special announcement:

Recently, an unfortunate incident occurred in the Baker Dining Hall, involving a member of Execon who was presenting a real and immediate fire hazard. As I demonstrated then, incidents of this sort, which so clearly endanger the lives of house residents, simply will not be tolerated.

Tech awoke with his head pounding. He wanted to go back to sleep but it was hopeless. He lay in bed trying to fight off the memories of last night, but it all started to come back to him anyway...

It had been a hell of a Pub. He was quite drunk by the time it started, and things got worse from there. He wasn't sure exactly how ~~gx~~ big a fool he had made of himself. Then he remembered: at one point he put on a dress and started waiting on tables. He wished he could forget that. But that wasn't all. He had a vague recollection of ~~jumping~~ jumping up on stage, tearing all his clothes off, and then trying to play the trumpet. He didn't even play the trumpet. He felt sick when he thought about it. He probably wouldn't be able to show his face in the dorm for a long time. But then he remembered--there was one bright spot; he had done one good thing last night: After the Pub was over he had crawled up the stairs into the Lobby when he ran into the Secretary who was carrying a pile of paper. Tech had stopped to ask him a question. He said: "Uh- when is the next eze, exec-- Execcom Meeting? ----" and then threw up on all 220 copies of the latest "Your jokes suck; your sentiment is worse--and you can't write worth a damn!" The Secretary said nothing.

"I think you Execcon faggots should get the hell out of my life and stop spending my money!" The Secretary said nothing.

"You greasy assholes play toy politics and then a clown like you reports it all--what a joke!" The Secretary said nothing.

"And your softball team sucks, too!" That did it. The Secretary had heard enough. He smiled at his assailant and then said quietly:

BAKER EXECCON MEETING MINUTES Monday, April 14, 1980
meeting called to order by President Mark Radka at 10:06 pm.
attendance - Pres VPFS VPRO VPIR JudC SocC AthC Tres Secr Parl +
Elections Chairwoman, Fire Marshal, Ex-Secretary

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Nancy - Cocktail Party this Friday--invite your Professors. The Wiesner Party was cancelled because Jerry couldn't make it.

Brian - (1) Social Chairman's Man of the Week is John Goree (that's me, and I deserve it). (2) Spring Weekend is the weekend after next--all teams for any of the events should be in by the end of this week.

Sue - There will be a Baker Letter this week.

Mike - The first practice for the IM Track Meet starts Patriots' Day at noon in Hopkinton: 26 miles, slow jog. Refreshments afterwards.

Mark - Anyone interested in being an usher at gxx commencement see me.

Kathy Yelick - Another set of proposed changes to the Execcon Bylaws regarding elections procedures is posted in the case.

John Noone - Go see the Tech Show this weekend. 4 Bakerites are in the show.

Pete Lemme - I need help desperately for the picturebook.

JG - (1) Somebody ordered a gx magazine and billed it to Baker House; don't do that or the dorm gets a bad credit rating. (2) Many thanks to everyone who helped at the Pub. Gold stars go to Moose, Tom Potter, Pete Robinson, Jeff Kletsky, and 75% of the Munchkins.

AGENDA

1) Approval of the Minutes of the Mon Apr 7 Execcon Meeting
Motion by Jeff, Second by Barton to approve said minutes Passes 8-0-1. No derogatory comments about me this time.

2) Discussion of End of Year Party for Seniors
It has been ~~xxxx~~ suggested that we start a tradition of a cocktail party for seniors the night before graduation. It would allow people to meet their friends' parents as well as providing one last opportunity to get trashed together as a class. It was pointed out that we spend thousands of dollars on freshmen during R/O Week, but essentially nothing on seniors when they leave. Budgetting $ for this party will be discussed at the House Meeting.

(turn over for more exciting news)

Items 3 and 4 were blatantly ignored by President Radka. Who the hell does he think he is, anyway? I spend half my ~~xxxx~~ life publishing these damn agendas and then he ignores them. You know, I wouldn't put up with it if he didn't give such great advice.

5) Discussion of uses for budgetary surplus

According to Treasurer Flemslime, the pinball income was somewhat underestimated, though the exact amount is unclear. Anyway, the only concrete suggestion for spending which was mentioned was roof furniture, which will be discussed at the House Meeting. Feldman wants a bubble over the roof so we can sunbathe in the winter. Personally, I think any extra money should be used to hire me a secretary.

6) Motion by Jeff, Second by Sue to put the following items on the agenda for the April 23 (Wednesday) House Meeting in the following order:

- (1) Ratification of GA Reps, (2) Ratification of Client Team Officers, (3) Ratification of ComCom Officers, (4) ~~kx~~ Approval of room rates, (5) Budgeting $4000 for Execon trip to South America, (6) Discussion of Client Team and Commons Committee, (7) Consideration of Laundry Fund and possible changes to Laundry room, (8) Budgeting ~~xx~~ $ for Senior End-of-Year Party, (9) Budgeting of $ for roof furniture Passes 7-1-1. See y'all there.

~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~

(Explanation of the above: that is what's known in the trade as a "big mistake".)

7) Motion by Jeff, Second by JG to have the next Execon Meeting Tuesday, April 22 at 10:00 pm on the roof, weather permitting-- rain location: the Boston Garden; if the Boston Garden is not available at that time, then meeting in the lobby Passes 8-0-1.

Motion by Jeff, Second by JG to not adjourn. ~~xxx~~ Motion not voted upon. Meeting disbanded at approx. 11:00 pm.

Secretarial Announcements:

- (1) This is "Be kind to the Social Chairman Week".
- (2) The results of my last poll are in. They show that most people do read my agendas, but don't know ~~whether~~ whether they are virgins.
- (3) The Social Chairman, the VPFS, and myself are all considering resigning.
- (4) I owe MIT $4000, my speakers are going away, and I have 2 problem sets due on Friday. Good ~~night~~ night all.

The following letters, taken apparently from a local newspaper, were submitted anonymously to Box 3320:

Dear Ann Landers,

I am the former House secretary of my dormitory at a small New England technical school. While I was secretary, I did a fantastic job of writing up serious, informative minutes and agendas. My successor, on the other hand, treats these important documents of House history in a ~~xxx~~ style which is flippant and irresponsible at best and cutesy at worst. Everyone with whom I've spoken about this tells me that I'm just jealous because his minutes and agendas are better and more entertaining than mine, but they are all nerds and don't know what they are talking about. How can I get the new secretary to treat the office with more respect?

Tech stumbled into the lounge at 2 A.M. on his nightly house circuit. As usual, the burn-out crowd was congregated there, high as the sky. The lights were off and the air was filled with foul-smelling smoke.

"Hey guys, it's Tech," one of them said laughing, "AR AR AR AR..."

"Tech, have a seat--you want a hit?" said another.

"No thanks," Tech replied, sitting down; "I already got laid tonight--no need to get stoned, too."

"AR AR AR AR AR..." was the reply.

"Seriously, Tech--this is good stuff; you should try some."

"No--really," he said, "I can't smoke dope--it gives me a rash on my--"

BAKER EXECCON MEETING MINUTES Tuesday, April 22, 1980 meeting called to order by President Mark Radka at 10:12 pm in the lobby (the Boston Garden was not available) attendance - Pres VPFS VPRO VPIR AthC Secr Tres + Ex-Secr, Ex-VPFS
Fire Marshal, Elections Chairman late: SocC JudC Parl

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mark - Coming soon: the Baker House Firewood Party.

Mike - Anybody that wants to use a house canoe must see me in advance (to avoid conflicts).

Nancy - I finally got all the old minutes over to Dean Sherwood.

Jeff Solof - Any fire extinguisher which is "found to be empty" should be taken to me as soon as possible for refilling, as often as necessary. No questions asked.

Croc - Anybody interested in being Summer Washcom(mie) should see me (alias Jim Askey) as soon as possible.

Barton - The Harbor Cruise is next Saturday (May 3rd); tickets will be available from Floor Social Chairpeople soon.

AGENDA

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Mon Apr 14 Execon Meeting
Motion by Jeff, Second by Rita to approve said minutes Passes 4-0-2. (Colucci left to go vote in the ComCom election).
- 2) ~~ix~~ Appointment of Presidential Wench
This item was tabled by the ~~fagge~~ President until the next Execon meeting. Get those applications in, girls! (and guys?)
- 3) Motion by JG, Second by Jeff to appropriate $1500 from Project Lush line item (for a mysterious purpose) Passes 4-1-1. Ask President Radka if you want to know more.
- 4) Motion by Nancy, Second by Jeff to appropriate $36.14 from House Meetings line item for April House Meeting food Passes 2-1-3.
Why didn't she just appropriate $40 and keep the extra $3.86 for the May House Meeting? I don't understand women.
- 5) This item was postponed until Social Chairman Barton Feldstadt arrived to speak for himself.
- 6), (7), and (8) were also postponed for the above reason.
- 9) Discussion of Dining Hall rental policy
As we began ~~xxx~~ discussion, the Secretary was brutally PPW'ed by the President. Two issues came up: (1) Do we have to rent the Dining Hall at all? and (2) If so, should we change our current policy of having every group who wants the D.H. come to an Execon meeting to get approval. Renting the D.H. to other groups is good relations, but it can also cause security problems. The consensus was that having groups screened by Execon was a good idea. In any case, any policy change would have to be made by the House at a House Meeting.

10) Changes to Execon Bylaws

Kathy Yelick drafted more changes to elections procedures to clarify some ambiguities in the changes we made last time. Motion to approve these changes by JG, Second by Mike Passes 8-0-0 in a roll call vote (all now present except Sue D, Judcomm Chmn.) The changes are posted.

11) Discussion of Damages

Mark received a bill from Don Hubbard for $400 for such things as broken windows and refilling fire extinguishers. If the House doesn't pay, all residents will be billed (as happened last year). It seems he is well within his rights to charge us in this way, so there is little we can do, except to try to prevent damages in the future. (...somewhere in there, Sue D arrives...)

5) Motion by Brian, Second by Jeff to appropriate $1300 from Harbor Cruise line item Passes 8-0-1. The party will end at midnight. Tickets will be on sale soon, for approx. $3.50 each.

6) Motion by Mike, Second by Jeff to appropriate $500 from Band Party line item for a party with McCormick Passes 7-1-1. Party is May 9th. NGL.

7) Motion by Brian, Second by JG to appropriate $45.90 from Soc Misc for a shitload of Sour Mix Passes 5-1-3.

8) Commendation of the Social Chairman for spending so much money. This item was ignored. I guess you're not spending enough, BF.

12) Setting the time and date of the next Execon Meeting

Motion by JG, Second by Rita to have no more Execon Meetings, ever. Ruled out of order by the Prez since it's contrary to the Bylaws. Motion by Bart, Second by JG to suspend the Bylaws to consider having no more meetings ever. Roll call vote:

Secr - Yes	SocC - Yes	VPRO - Yes
Tres - ~~Yes~~ No	~~AthC~~ ~~xxxxxx~~	VPFS - "Sure, what the hell"
AthC - Yes	JudC - Yes	Prez - No
	VPIR - Yes

Motion Passes 7-2-0. Original motion still ruled out of order because you can't contradict the Bylaws even if they're suspended. Motion by Bart to have the next Exec Meeting next September 1st.

Motion ignored.

Motion by Mike to ~~xxxx~~ permanently suspend the Bylaws.

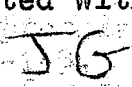

Motion ignored.

Motion by Bill, Second by JG to have the next meeting Wed Apr 30 at 10pm on the roof, weather permitting, else in the lobby. Passes 4-2-3.

Meeting adjourned at 11:06 pm.

Please have items for Wed~~xxx~~ Meeting in Box 3320 by noon Monday.

COMMITTEE ON EVALUATION OF FRESHMAN PERFORMANCE

Dear Baker Residents,

As your dormitory has just recently completed its room assignments lottery for the fall, we at the Committee for the Evaluation of Freshman Performance (CEFP) felt that now would be a good time to inform you of a decision we have made regarding Baker House Freshmen.

We have been in close contact with the Freshman Review Board of your dorm for the past few months in an attempt to determine exactly what the problem with Baker Freshmen is. It seems that an unusually high proportion of Baker Freshmen have chosen to do absolutely no work this past term, and are consequently failing all their courses. While your Review Board has assured us that the situation is under control, and that just a few of your Freshmen are total losses, we have come to believe that the problem is in the nature of the living experience which your living group provides.

Apparently some Baker upperclassmen have been encouraging Freshmen to stop working on the weekends--especially Saturday nights. As you well know, this is against Institute policy. Furthermore, it has been rumored that your upperclassmen have been telling Frosh that it's "OK" if they don't get an A on every test. In fact, there have been charges that Freshmen have been told that "all you have to do is pass."

Your Freshman Review Board has suggested weekly Freshman Shower Nights to help alleviate the Freshmen problem. We think an alternative solution is preferable: Beginning immediately, all Frosh in Baker will be relocated into MacGregor, where the atmosphere is more conducive to studying. We feel that this move will help Freshmen in two ways. First, they will make more A's. Second, no longer will they have to read the

- 8) Appropriation of $100 from Floor Misc for 4th floor party - Armand
- 9) Appropriation of $25.67 from VPFS Misc for powered moriah re-filling apparatus - Jeff
- 10) Appropriation of $20 from Baker Letter line item - JG
- 11) Setting the time and date of the next Execcon Meeting

Dear Mom,

As usual, life here has been pretty hectic lately. We just had the room lottery for next fall's rooms--I got put in a triple with a known homosexual and the ex-president of MIT. I failed another exam today--that makes four this week. I petitioned to drop all of my courses, but they didn't buy it.

My friends are spreading ~~xx~~ rumors about me and an incredibly disgusting girl: they wrote "Tech loves Agatha" all over the bathroom walls. They showered me yesterday and I scraped all the skin off my elbows trying to escape. I got sick from commons dinner a couple of nights ago and had to go to the infirmary to get my stomach pumped. My wallet was stolen while I was gone, but I only lost $50.

Other than that everything's fine. How are you?

love,
Tech

BAKER EXECCON MEETING MINUTES Wednesday, April 30, 1980 meeting called to order by President Mark Radka at 10:08 in the lobby.
attendance - Pres VPFS VPRO VPIR SocC Tres Secr + Parl, Elections
Chairman, House Photographer. late: AthC

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Mark - (1) Anyone interested in being House Photographer next year see me. (2) Anyone with ideas for awards, tell me. In particular ~~xx~~ nominations are now being accepted for MOF.
Brian - The Harbor Cruise is this Saturday.
Barry Star - Since I will (hopefully) be graduating soon, if you want reprints from house slides, see me soon (50¢ each).
Charlie Dale - Anyone with ideas or suggestions on our Commons proposal, see me.
Pete Lemme - The Picturebook will be done this weekend or not at all. See me if you want to help.

AGENDA

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Tue Apr 22 Execon Meeting
Motion by Jeff to not approve the minutes dies for lack of second. (That'll show you, you damn freshman!) Motion by Bill to approve the minutes, Second by Jeff Passes 4-1-2.
- 2) Approval of the minutes of the Wed Apr 23 House Meeting
Motion by Jeff, Second by Nancy to not approve the minutes. (Sometimes I get the feeling you people don't respect me.) Amend by Barton, Second by Nancy to change "not approve" to "approve" Passes many-few. Motion as amended Passes 6-0-1.
- 3) Appointment of Presidential Wench
After much consideration, Mark has chosen Dorothy Stratten, Miss August of 1979, as his Presidential Wench. Unfortunately she couldn't be at the meeting, but Mark assured us that she consented to the position by phone. Motion by JG, Second by Bill to approve the Wench Passes 5-1-1. Congratulations, Mark! (Pictures of Dorothy are available in room 618, if anyone is interested.)
- 4) Motion by Bart, Second by JG to appropriate $35 from Presidential Gavel line item Passes 3-2-2. Ex-President Brewster attempted to defend the need for this item, but we voted for it anyway.
- 5) Motion by JG, Second by Bill to appropriate $200 from the Presidential Slush Fund for gifts for the Tutors. Amend by Bart, Second by JG to change $200 to $199.99 Passes 6-1-0. Motion as amended Passes 4-0-3. The suggestion was made to take the penny off of Ed Griffor's gift.

(...Mike Colucci, Athletic Chairman, arrives...)

- 6) Motion by JG, Second by Bart to appropriate $50 from Slide Collection line item for film and processing, Passes 3-0-5.
- 7) Motion by Jeff, Second by Bart to appropriate $35 from Soc Misc for a keg for Thursday night (the Sophomore vs. Junior drinking contest) Passes 4-1-3. (I want downstairs while that was going on, but I drank a Mountain Dew instead of beer. When President Radka saw this, he demanded my resignation. When I told him I would be all too happy to resign, he refused to ~~an~~ accept my resignation.)
- 8) Motion by Brian, Second by JG to appropriate $60 from Floor Soc Misc for a 4th Floor Party on Friday, May 2 Passes 4-3-1. Jeff asked for a roll call vote:

Secr - No	SocC - Yes	VPFS - No
Tres - Yes	VPIR - Yes	Pres - Yes
AthC - No	VPRO - Yes

Passes 5-3.

- 9) Apparently, certain fire extinguishers have been discharging themselves accidentally. The Fire Marshal, Jeffrey R. Solof, has volunteered to refill them, but he needed equipment. Motion by Jeff, Second by Bart to appropriate $25.67 from VPFS Misc for a Wrench and a pump Passes 5-2-1. Fire Marshal Solof asks that when you bring him an extinguisher, please leave a note on it saying where it's from, so that he can return it to the proper floor when he has refilled it.
- 10) Motion by Bill, Second by Nancy to appropriate $18.40 from Baker Letter line item for the April issue Passes 6-0-2.
- 11) Motion by somebody, Seconded by someone else to have the next Execcon Meeting Wednesday, May 7 at 10:00 pm on the roof; rain location--the lobby Passes 4-0-4.

Meeting disbanded at approx. 11:00.

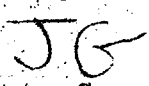

"...The Dean for Student Affairs Office strongly discourages behavior which would detract from an atmosphere which is conducive to academic and personal growth. We particularly find objectionable harassment, race and sex discrimination, and such behavior labeled "hacking" or "hazing", such as "showereing", "rivering", "pennying", waterfighting, etc."

xxx --Regulations of the Institute Houses

"There will be a waterfight this Sunday, during which all freshmen will be showered (especially women and minorities) as part of their hazing. Afterwards we will throw the most obnoxious of them in the river, then penny them in their rooms. There will be an expedition to go roof hacking after this, and we strongly encourage everyone to do absolutely no academic work that night."

From: A Modest Judge of Correctness
To: JG
Subject: Correct English Usage

Sir,

In the last issue of the Minutes, the phrase "to not approve" caught my eye. In the future, try to not split your infinitives.

For the benefit of those of us who prefer to read precise, picturesque, proper prose in praiseworthy paragraphs, rather than the unpleasant products of poor grammar, I prescribe the following practical precepts to guide you in your painstaking pursuit of perfection:

1. Write complete sentences. Not fragments.
2. When writing, dangling participles should not be used.
3. To write grammatically, dangling infinitives should not be used either.
4. "Each" and "none" take singular verbs. Thus, each of the 2 sentences below are incorrect:
 - a) Each of the 2 sentences below are incorrect.
 - b) None of the above 2 sentences are correct.

Because "are" is used in place of "is", none of the above 2 sentences are correct.

5. Don't include in your sentences words which serve no basic purpose.

Grammatically yours,

A Modest Judge of Correctness

Tech McTool had decided to work all weekend long. He didn't usually think of himself as a nerd, but now he had to learn ten weeks of material in two days, and he was panicking.

He sat at his ~~xxx~~ desk, slaving away, determined to keep working at all costs. He heard six bells ring. Normally he would have run down to the desk immediately, but this time he controlled himself and kept working. Ten minutes later he heard the piano hit the ground, but he kept working. Nothing could make him leave that desk. His friends were yelling out the windows, but he kept on working diligently.

The phone rang. It was one of his friends, who told him that the most beautiful girl in the dorm was sunbathing on the roof. Calmly Tech explained that he had to keep working, and then he hung up. ...Suddenly he sprang out of his chair and started running towards the roof. "I'll get right back to work," he said to himself, "but I ~~xx~~ just remembered that when I was on the roof last I left up there my copy of the latest

Mark - (1) Anyone with suggestions for awards, see me soon. (2) The Baker Picturebook is finished--on sale at the desk for $1.50.

(3) Steve Reis is the new House Photographer.

Rita - R/O Meeting Sunday at 8:00 pm in the ISL.

Sue - Contributions now being accepted for the May Baker Letter.

Brian - Thanks to all who helped at the Harbor Cruise.

Tim Kuo - Anyone who is interested in being an associate advisor for the Baker Frosh Advisor Program, or who has suggestions for new advisors for the program, see me or Rita.

Mike - We won the IM Track Meet. Congratulations to John Border, Al Kirkpatrick, Silvano Brewster, Jeff "Rag" Lofton, and to everyone else who competed. Also : Rick Kotosky is the new IM Hockey Manager.

Jeff Solof - Mr Flarsheim and I have optimized the fire extinguisher refilling procedure. It now takes twice as much work to refill them as it used to, but they work better. Also, Don is no longer charging us to refill them, but I'll keep doing it so he doesn't get fed up and change his mind.

Wayne Seltzer - For a good time, call dormline 160.

Ruy - No ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ announcements.

Colucci - Eisen is ugly.

Eisen - Colucci is ugly.

AGENDA

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Wed Apr 30 Execon Meeting
Motion by Bart, Second by JG to approve said minutes Passes 5-0-3.
- 2) Motion by Jeff, Second by Like to appropriate $24.35 from Darkroom line item for some Darkroom equipment, and $25.90 from VPFS Misc for some more Darkroom equipment PASSES 7-0-1. That makes a total of $50.25 for Darkroom Equipment, for those of you ~~xx~~ who give a damn.
- 3) Motion by Bart, Second by Sue to appropriate $500 from roof furniture line item for (surprise!) ~~xxx~~ roof furniture PASSES 7-0-1.
Jeff plans to work on roof furniture over the summer.

(please head turn over....)

- 4) Motion by Jeff, Second by Barton to appropriate $125 from Floor Social Disc for a 7th floor social event on the Wednesday of finals week Passes 7-0-1-1. (The last "1" is the Fire Marshal, who can't vote but does so anyway.)
- 5) Discussion of Baker Frosh Advisor Program
The program will be continued next year. The biggest problem is that as it worked last year, frosh had to switch advisors to ~~xxx~~ get into the program, which many were reluctant to do. Conceivably next year the initial meeting with advisors might be delayed until frosh get dorm assignments, which will make it easier to switch.
- 5½) Discussion of House Tax
The House tax for next year will ~~gx~~ be set at the next House Meeting, so be there if you give a damn. This past year it was $33/yr.
- 6) Motion by Jeff, Second by Mike to appropriate $44.92 from House Meetings line item for munchies for the May House Meeting, and to censure the VPIR for being absent. The Prez ~~fx~~ refused to recognize the censuring. Motion (without censure) Passes 4-0-4-1.
- 7) Appointment of Social Chairman's Wench
Mark passed the gavel to Jeff so that he could flame. Jeff then passed the gavel to Rita because he felt left out. Mark claimed to have researched the matter of wenches in all past minutes, and found no ~~xxxxxx~~ precedent for a Social Chairman's Wench--he claimed that it was a privilege reserved for the President. Jeff: "By the end of their terms of office, all members of Execcon should have their appropriate sex wenches, to have appropriate sex with." Motion by Jeff to appoint Jerri-Lynn Scofield as Soc Chmn Wench Fails 4-4. Radka is pleased. Gavel returns to the Prez.
- 8) Motion by JG, ~~EXM~~ Second by Bill to appropriate $50 from Repair line item for repair of the House Typewriter Passes 5-0-3-1.
- 8½) Flushed.....
- 9) Motion by Jeff, Second by Bart to have the May House Meeting on Wednesday, May 14, 1980 at 8:00 pm in the Dining Hall Passes 6-0-2.
- 10) Setting the agenda for the above mentioned House Meeting.
Motion by Jeff, Second by Bart to put the following items on the agenda, in the following order: (1) Censuring of the BHRAC, (2) Dining Committee update, (3) Ratification of the new Snack Bar Manageress, (4) Ratification of the ComCom Secretary, (5) Discussion of Room Assignments Priorities policy, (6) Discussion of policies towards transfers ~~xxx~~ into Baker, (7) Setting the House Tax, (8) AWARDS!!! Passes 6-0-2.
- 11) Motion by Jeff, Second by someone to have the next Execcon Meeting Tuesday, May 13, 1980 at 10:00 pm on the roof, weather permitting Passes 6-1-1.

Motion by the President to adjourn, Seconded by the President, Passes 1-0-0. (Everyone else had already left...) Unfortunately, one person, even the President himself, does not constitute a quorum. Thus the motion ~~xx~~ was invalid.

The LAST

BAKER EXECCON MEETING AGENDA

I'm struggling to get this agenda out before the meeting (I thought that might be a good idea). Meeting to be held tonight (Tuesday, May 20, 1980) at 8:00pm on the roof.

...the agenda for this evening:

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Tue May 13 Execcon Meeting
- 2) Approval of the minutes of the Wed May 14 House Meeting
- 3) Appropriation of $60 for fines - Mike
- 4) Discussion of the summer--and the future - Mark
- 5) Suspension of the Bylaws to do anything else I've forgotten - JG
- 6) Setting the time and date of the next Execcon Meeting (in September)
- 7) Adjournment for the summer

As Tech McTool packs his bags and boxes up his books, he pauses to reflect on the past ~~xx~~ year. What has he learned? Can his existence here be summarized in a set of second order partial differential equations, or is there something more?

Our hero wanders out into the hallway, which is buzzing with activity. Half of his neighbors are packing also, the rest are either drunk, or stoned, or well on their way. He exchanges addresses with a couple of them, promises to write (though he's almost certain he won't), then returns to his room.

The dorm sure seems a lot smaller than it did when arrived so long ago as a confused, arrogant freshman. This year he even learned where all the electrical closets were, and how easy it was to cut off someone's power if they were playing their stereo too loud. He definitely felt like a real Bakerite.

But Tech also felt old--very old. He almost ~~wix~~ wished he were a confused, arrogant freshman again. That way he could start over, and do all the things he should have done. He could get ~~xx~~ laid his freshman year like everyone else did (or so they claimed).

Tech closes his suitcase and reaches for ~~xx~~ the dormphone to call a taxi. He is very glad to be getting the hell away from here for a while. But he also knows from experience that he'll be glad ~~xxx~~ to see September roll around again--though he'd never admit it to anyone.

And as the Secretary prepares to pack away his typewriter, ~~xxxx~~ he too reflects on the past year. But before he makes the mistake of revealing his innermost thoughts to his reading public, he thinks better of it and decides to let them guess instead.

R/O Week will be upon us soon. But for now-- I at least want to go home and work on getting a tan.

I close with an observation (attributed originally to Craig Albert--former Agenda Secretary) on the work still to be done:

"If seven maids with seven mops
Swept it for half a year,
Do you suppose," the Walrus said,
"That they could get it clear?"
"I doubt it," said the Carpenter
And shed a bitter tear.

until September,
JG

The Secretary sat at his desk--dead tired. His entire room was packed away. He was leaving tomorrow morning. The last thing he wanted to do now was the

BAKER EXECCON MEETING MINUTES Tuesday, May 20, 1980 meeting called to order at 8:06pm by President Mark Radka attendance - Pres VPFS VPRO JudC AthC Tres Secr and Fire Marshal late: Social Chairman (by 9 minutes)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jeff Solof - I'll be leaving for the summer, but there will be someone who looks very much like me who will lend out the pump to anyone who asks.

Sue - The Baker Letter will be published in early September, so be thinking of contributions now.

Mike - The party at my place is still on.

AGENDA

- 1) Motion by Jeff, Second by Sue to approve the minutes of the Tue May 3 Execcon Meeting Passes 5-0-2.
- 2) Motion by Jeff, Second by Rita to approve the minutes of the Wed May 4 House Meeting with the following correction:
There was a motion made that no one in the House shall have higher priority than that of a senior who has lived in the dorm since his first term freshman year (under item 6: Discussion of policies towards transfers into Baker). This motion Passed 50-23. (Your loyal Secretary inadvertently omitted this motion from the minutes).
Motion to approve as corrected Passes 4-1-2.
- 3) Motion by Mike, Second by Jeff to appropriated $40 from Jock Misc for two volleyball fines Passes 5-0-2.
- 4) Discussion of the summer
Steve Aschkenase ("Spags") is summer treasurer and athletic chairman. Mark Radka is summer president and secretary. Sue Downing is summer desk captain. Rita also plans on being here. (of course...)
- 5) Motion by Jeff, Second by Brian to suspend the Bylaws for discussion of Duct tape (??!) Passes 5-1-2. Motion by Jeff, Second by Bart to appropriate $21 from VPFS Misc for the purchase of 3 rolls of said tape Passes 5-1-2.
- 6) Motion by Rita, Second by Jeff to have the next Execcon Meeting on Wednesday, August 27 at 8:01pm Passes 7-0-2.

Motion by Jeff, Second by Mike to adjourn until the party at Colucci's Passes by standing vote.....

See you all in September.....

The Homecoming

Tech McTool paid the cab driver (undertipping, as always) and stepped out onto Amherst Alley. Summer had been a piece of shit, as usual; it was definitely good to be home. "That's the last summer ~~xx~~ I'll spend as a taste-tester in a dog-food factory," he vowed as he trudged up the steps, spitting behind him to remove the Alpo from his breath. The familiar face of Baker House seemed strangely new for an instant, and Tech's mind wandered back to his own Rush Week, so many lifetimes ago, when he had walked through those doors for the first time....

..."Here, freshman--check in at the desk!" someone shouted. He shuffled obediently over to the desk and gave his name. One of the people behind the desk spoke: "Sign this card Here's your linen and your room key Don't lose it Your room is 601 Here's a sheet of propaganda Welcome to Baker House ~~xx~~ NEXT!" Totally confused, Tech added the new piece of paper to his already massive pile and began searching for room 601. Though no one offered to carry his luggage three guys were fighting over the right to help the blonde who had come in behind him.

"Sign in, please." He found himself in front of another desk, behind which at least twenty people were sitting, all looking very bored but clearly trying to look important. He signed dutifully and passed by the desk. The blonde signed in a few seconds later and six guys sprang up saying something about "tours".

He saw an elevator and moved towards it, guessing that this could take him to room 601. But before he made it there a strange man pulled him aside and began talking to him.

"Watch out for them here," he said; "they're weird."

"Who are you?" Tech asked cleverly.

"I'm a spy from a fraternity," the man whispered, "here to warn all the freshmen."

"Warn us about what?"

"About this place, you idiot! It's a trap. They feed you horse shit in their dining hall. They throw you into the shower when you're not looking. They're real nice to you the first week and then wham! -- they forget all about you. You'll know the end is near when they force you to read your first copy of the attendance - Pres VPFS VPRO VPIR JudC (late) SocC AthC Tres Secr + Elections Chairman, ex-Athletic Chairman, Steve Weiss, about 15 freshmen, and others.

pre-announcements:

"I resign" - Nancy; "I resign" - Mike; "I resign" - Jeff

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jeff - I have to spend $$ next year. Anyone with ideas on what we need in the Dark Room, TV Room, E-lab, etc. (S-lab, Sauna...!)
see me.

Rita - (1) Congratulations and many thanks to all my R/O Workers.
(2) Blue Hills Picnic is Saturday the 13th. A signup is posted.

William - Anyone with ideas on what the House should spend $$ on next year (...Sauna!) please see me.

Mike "innertube" Colucci - (1) Soccer and Football signups are posted. Put your Athletic Card number on the signup sheet; if you don't have an Athletic card, get one!! (2) There is an IM Council Meeting Sept 17th at which managers will be elected for IM Bowling, Indoor Track, Cross-country, and Wrestling. If anyone is interested in these positions, see me.

Kathy Yelick - Elections for Freshman Rep and floor Social Chairmen will be held the fourth Tuesday of classes. Petitions will be due the Saturday beforehand. See me if you are interested in running.

Sue - (1) Judcomm Butteries will be Tuesday Sept 16th; please try to attend. (2) The Baker Letter will be coming out Thursday the 11th; deadline for submissions is Monday the 8th.

Mark P. Radka '81 of Buffalo, NY - (1) Please drop in sometime and meet the new Housemasters and the new Tutors. (2) The BEER
COOP will be starting soon.

JG - I had forgotten how much I hate typing up the minutes.

AGENDA

- 1) Declaration of an Official Mourning Period for the late Presidential Wench; Dorothy Stratten, Playmate of the Year, was named Presidential Wench last year by Mark. She was ~~murdered~~ murdered this summer, however. Mark passed the gavel to Jeff to be able to mourn properly. Motion by Mike, Second by Sue ~~to~~ to suspend the Bylaws to consider the showering of our beloved President Falls 0-8-1. Mark feels responsible for Dorothy's death; to prevent any further incidents of this sort, he and Jeff Solof are joining the priesthood. Motion by Barton, Second by Bill to have 15 seconds of silence for Dorothy Passes by acclimation, but silence is broken after 2 seconds.

- 2) State of the Dorm Address

Mark feels that the important things facing us in the coming year are: Mandatory Commons, the Country Kitchen ("under construction!"), the repairs to the Grand Piano, and of course properly welcoming the new Freshman Class. Although he didn't mention it, I must add that ensuring that the Secretary finishes his Thesis is also a pressing concern.

- 3) Motion by ~~xx~~ JG, Second by Jeff to commend the VPRO (Rita) for a job well done Passes 8-1-0 (Rita votes for herself).
- 4) Appropriation of Blue Hills Money. The entire R/O Budget was appropriated last year. No motions ~~xx~~ necessary.
- 5) Motion by Brian, Second by Sue to appropriate $165 from Pool Table line item to recover the Pool Table Passes 7-0-2.
- 6) Appropriation of Ping-pong Table line item. Again, already appropriated last year. No ~~xxxx~~ motion necessary. Mike is working on buying a new table.
- 7) Motion by Mike, Second by Jeff to appropriate $30 from Football line item Passes 7-0-2.
- 8) Motion by Jeff, Second by Brian to appropriate $60 from Football lights line item Passes 5-0-4.
- 9) Motion by Sue, Second by Mike to appropriate $45 from Baker Letter line item Passes 8-0-1. This money will be used for two mini-issues in September.
- 10) Motion by Bill, Second by JG to appropriate $65 from Judcom Butteries line item. Amend by Jeff, Second by JG that we add "under the condition that we have more brownies" Passes 5-0-4. Motion as amended Passes 6-0-3.
- 11) Motion by Jeff, Second by Nancy to appropriate $10 from Judcom Misc for the printing of policy statements Passes ~~XXXXXX~~ 7-0-2.
- 12) Motion by Nancy, Second by Barton to appropriate $65 from Living Group Relations for a Happy Hour with a living group~~xx~~ to be named later Passes 5-2-2.
- 13) Motion by Brian, Second by Sue to appropriate $59.86 from House Meeting line item for food for the September meeting Passes 7-0-2. Motion by Barton, Second by Jeff to appropriate $76.35 from VPIR Misc for September House Meeting food Passes 8-0-1. (Making a total of $136.21 for food. It had better be good!)
- 14) Discussion of the Country Kitchen and policies for its use (Nancy had to go. Motion to let Nancy go PP by JG, Second by ~~xx~~ Jeff Passes 6-0-2, with Nancy en-route.) The Country Kitchen, when and if completed, will require equipment beyond that which MIT provides. We will have to purchase some of it. Also the question of who has control of the CK was raised. Concensus seemed to be that a single person should be incharge, probably accountable to the VPFS. The key should not be available at the desk for sign out, but should be available from this person. (These are not final decisions by Execcon; the House will have to decide guidelines for the use of the CK at a House Meeting.) Jeff asks that anyone with ideas on equipment (or who might be interested in running the CK) should see him.
- 15) Motion by ~~xx~~ Jeff, Second by JG to have the September House Meeting on Wednesday, Sept 17th at 8:30 P.M. Passes 8-0-1.
- 16) Motion by Jeff, Second by Sue to place the following items on ~~xx~~ the House Meeting Agenda: (1) Tabled Motion to censure the Room Assignments Committee, (2) Discussion of and approval of Piano Loan, (3) Discussion of the Country Kitchen and Policies for its use, (4) Fall Budget. Passes 8-0-1.
- 17) Motion by Jeff, Second by JG to have the next Execcon Meeting Tuesday, Sept 9th at 9:00pm in the lobby Passes 6-0-3.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING:

A Special Execon Meeting will be held on Monday, September 8, 1980 at 1:30 P.M. in the Master Suite Lounge for the purpose of discussing questions of the immediate crowding problem in Baker House.

MINUTES OF THE SPECIAL BAKER HOUSE EXECCON MEETING of Sept. 8, 1980

This meeting was held for the purpose of discussing questions of the immediate crowding problem in Baker House.

attendance - VPFS VPIR JudC SocC AthC Tres Secr Parl
(President and VPRO arrived later in the meeting)

Due to an unexpectedly high number of freshmen requiring dormitory housing this year, all undergraduate dorms have been severely overcrowded. In addition to the "normal" overcrowding in Baker House (11's and 46's being used as quads instead of triples), further overcrowding has recently been imposed with the 06's being converted to quads. This action was taken last week (the second week of Rush), but as of this past weekend several freshmen remained in limbo, without housing assignments.

In the House lottery held this past Saturday, two extra freshmen were taken into Baker House. The net result of this action, as well as other confusions in the lottery, is that four doubles are now overcrowded into triples. The members of Execcon generally agreed that this level of crowding is unacceptable, and that should additional spaces in Baker become available (through cancellations by upperclassmen, for example), our first priority should be to uncrowd these doubles.

A resolution was thus drafted expressing our opinions on the overcrowding situation in Baker, to be transmitted to the Deans Office. (During the writing of this resolution, the President and VPRO arrived.)

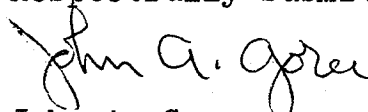

Resolution:

We consider the current overcrowding situation in Baker House to be unacceptable. In the event that any further spaces open up in Baker, we will not consider any additional assignments to Baker until all doubles have been uncrowded. We realize that the crowding of our "06" rooms is necessary as a temporary solution to the Institute-wide crowding problem; however, we expect that these rooms will be uncrowded in the future, and we will not allow these rooms to permanently remain overcrowded triples.

Motion by Bill Flarsheim, Second by Mike Colucci to adopt this resolution Passes 9-0-0.

Meeting adjourned at 2:08pm.

Respectfully submitted,

John A. Goree
Baker House Secretary

Deans Office
Chairman of the Emergency
Committee on Housing

Dear residents of Baker House,

As you well know, the unexpected size of this year's freshman class has created a severe housing shortage in the undergraduate dormitories. To deal with this situation, we are regretfully forced to adopt the following measures, effective immediately:

- (1) All upperclassmen who continuously play cards in the Baker lobby will be evicted from their rooms and forced to remain in the lobby 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- (2) All singles containing waterbeds will be converted into doubles, since most of these rooms are already housing two (or more) people.
- (3) A diagnostic quiz will be administered to all freshmen. Those expressing an interest in Course 6 will be housed in the E-lab. Special curtains will be installed to ensure that no sunlight enters the room.
- (4) All electrical closets will be converted into quads. Alternate shower stalls on West ends will be used as doubles; residents will be given the choice of hot or cold wakeups at 7:00 A.M. each morning.
- (5) All female freshmen will be required to serve as live-in housekeepers for senior males; assignments will be made by lottery.
- (6) Due to the added strain placed on the bathroom facilities by overcrowding, all residents will be encouraged to use their sinks whenever possible.
- (7) Since Baker Dining Hall will be unable to accomodate the large freshman class, troughs for freshmen feeding will be placed in the West-end lounges each day at 5:00 P.M. Following dinner, freshmen will be hosed down en masse (in lieu of showering) and herded back to their quarters.
- (8) In the event that some freshmen remain in limbo after these measures are taken, they will be stored in the Trunk Room, and released at the discretion of the Trunk Room Manager.
- (9) In a final attempt to create more spaces in Baker, all upper-classmen designated as "worthless" by this committee will be executed at sundown.
- (10) Speaking of worthless, here is the

BAKER EXECCON MEETING MINUTES Tuesday, September 9, 1980
Meeting called to order by President Mark Radka at 9:08pm in the Baker House lobby (362 Memorial Drive, Cambridge Mass.)
attendance - All nine officers + Elections Chairman, Fire Marshal and ex-Institute R/O Coordinator, Rick Norton, and scores of others.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Brian - (1) Cocktail Party on Thursday, Sept 25 (1980) because of the ~~cerenation~~ inauguration of Grey on Friday. (2) There will be a "kletsy party" on October 3rd with an open bar and a jazz band.
- JG - I'm being molested (editors' note: by the VPIR and Judcom Chmn).
Rita - If anyone didn't get a Baker Confidential Guide, see me or Mark (frosh and transfers that is. Upperclassmen have supposedly already "gotten theirs".)
- Kathy Yelick - Elections for Frosh Rep and Floor Social Chairmen will be Sept. 30th. Petitions are due to me by midnite Sept 27th.
- Brian again - Anyone interested in running for Floor Soc Chmn please talk to me about it (room 321).
- Sue - The Baker Letter will henceforth be biweekly. Contributions are always welcome.
- Mike - Football and soccer signups are due by Sunday morning.
There is a coed football league. Badmiton signups coming soon.

AGENDA

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Thur Sep 4 Execcon Meeting
Motion by Jeff, Second by Barton to approve said minutes Passes 8-0-1. I guess nobody read them, as usual.
- 2) Motion by Nancy, Second by Jeff to appropriate $60 from Client Team Butteries line item for aforementioned butteries Passes 7-1-1.
- 3) Motion by Barton, Second by JG to appropriate $55 from VPFS Misc for a House drill. The old house drill disappeared over the summer. Amendment by Barton, Second by JG to make Steve Levin ("Shteve") House Drill Chairman (don't ask why, please).
Charlie Dale (parliamentarian): "What's going on?!" Amendment Passes 5-1-3. Congratulations, Steve. Motion as amended Passes 5-2-2.
- 4) (Appropriation of misc Social $$ for various stuff)
As our "beloved" Social Chairman was being violently attacked for this item, our ""beloved"" President Mark P. Radka passed the gavel to Jeff Kletsy to defend the Social Chairman. After several minutes conversation on pointless questions involving tons of popcorn, the gavel returned and the following Motion was made by Brian, Seconded by Jeff: To appropriate from Social Misc $100 for Sour Mix, $30 for Cocktail Shakers, $30 for popcorn, and $64.95 for cups and light sockets. Motion Passes 6-1-2.
- 5) Motion by Mike, Second by Nancy to appropriate $50 from weights line item for House Weight Room equipment Passes 7-0-2. The weight room is being reconstructed (hopefully) by the Athletic Chairman and his cpf's.

(please turn over for more....)

- 6) Motion by Jeff, Second by JG to appropriate $30 from Baker Letter line item for an additional September issue Passes 8-0-1.
- 7) Motion by Jeff, Second by JG to appropriate $30 from Secretarial Misc for pictures of greasy people Passes 8-0-1.
- 8) Discussion of Room Assn Comm and the ~~xxxxxxx~~ overcrowding problem. We encountered a new situation this year with the extreme overcrowding problem throughout MIT. Certain decisions regarding overcrowding were made by the Room Assignments Committee. The question as to whether the RAC should have the power to make these decisions is essentially unanswered by the Baker House Constitution or the Execon Bylaws. Specifically, the RAC decided to take two additional freshmen ~~xxxx~~ into the dorm at the time of Saturday's lottery. These frosh were not placed in Baker by the Deans Office. These frosh were placed in overcrowded doubles (converted into triples).

The question discussed, then, was that of exactly what the powers of RAC should be. Some felt that it is a mistake to restrict RAC, and that we should rely on the integrity of its members. Others favored possible amendments to the Bylaws limiting RAC in various ways, though opinions differed as to the exact form such an amendment would take. No motions were made, though proposed Bylaws amendments may be discussed later.

- 9) Adding items to the September House Meeting agenda. No items to add. Motion by Jeff, Second by Bart to place the following items on the agenda: (1) Tabled Motion to censure the RAC, (2) Discussion of and approval of piano loans, (3) Discussion of the Country Kitchen and Policies for its use, (4) FALL BUDGET! Passes 6-0-2. (Sue Downing had departed).
- 10) Discussion of Fall Budgets. After much discussion, the following budget was ~~xxxxxxx~~ proposed. (I show only totals; come to the House Meeting for details):

pres	$1095	VPIR	530	Athletic	1250
VPFS	3000	Judcom	15	Treasurer	100
VPRO	150xx	Social	10800	SECRETARY	850

Grand Total: $17,790 out of $19,430 budgettable

- ~~Mx~~ Motion by Mike, Second by JG to recommend this budget to the House (for review at the House Meeting), Passes 6-1-1. The Social Chairman asks for a roll call vote:

Secr	-	Yes	SocC	-	Yes	VPRO	-	Yes
Tres	-	Yes	JudC	-	absent	VPFS	-	Yes
AthC	-	Yes	VPIR	-	No	Pres	-	Yes

Motion Passes 7-1-0.

- 11) Motion by Jeff, Second by Brian to have the next Execon Meeting on Thursday, Sept 18, at 10pm in the lobby Passes 6-0-2.

Meeting disbanded at 11:30pm.

Submitted many days late,

JG

"Professor Bojob will see you now."

"Thank you," Tech replied as he headed into his advisor's office, pausing one last time to drool over the ~~xx~~ secretary. The professor sat hunched over his desk, totally oblivious to Tech's presence. Finally he motioned for Tech to sit down, and Tech ~~xx~~ obediently took his place in the visitors' chair.

"Name?" his advisor demanded--without ~~xxx~~ looking up.

"Tech McTool." By now Tech was quite used to his advisor not knowing his name. After a few more minutes, Professor Bojob finally looked Tech in the eye, gave him a wry smile, and asked

"What can I do for you, son?"

"Well sir, I'd like to drop all my courses," Tech answered and laid the drop card on the desk.

"Any particular reason?"

"Yes. I figure if I don't have any classes to attend I'll finally have enough time to do my homework."

"Anything else?"

"Yes--I've come to realize that all classes at MIT are bullshit, poorly taught, administered by idiots, and generally not worth a damn."

"Fine. I think you've made a wise decision."

His advisor signed the slip of paper and pushed it across the desk. Tech was ~~xxxxxx~~ stunned. When he snapped out of his stupor he grabbed the drop card and dashed out of the office, screaming "I'm free! I'm free!" He kissed the secretary, bolted down the stairs and outside. Only then did he examine the drop card closely. His smile disappeared in an instant.

"I'll get you for this, Bojob!" he swore, having realized that the only thing his advisor had done was to autograph Tech's copy of the

The Seduction of Tech McTool

Part 1 - The Ball

Tech strolled into the Student Center with ~~gx~~ high hopes; he was in a good mood. He even held the door for a foul-smelling nerd--obviously heading for the 5th floor. It was, after all, the Inaugural Ball. What better place to meet rich, fascinating women? He had done his best to look respectable: clean underwear, a jacket--he wasn't even wearing sneakers. He presented his ticket with an affected smugness and entered.

Immediately he felt the need for a drink. He found the spiked punch and quickly downed three glasses. Sufficiently buzzed, he started to prowl. Many of the women looked old enough to be his grandmother, but he remained optimistic...

"Hello, my name's Tech McTool; what's yours?"

"Mrs. Ladelline Smythe!" the woman indignantly replied, and ran off to find her husband. Undaunted by this failure, Tech returned to the punch bowl for a couple more. A female-type figure approached; Tech gathered his courage.

"Hi--I'm Tech McTool; would you like some punch?"

"Why, certainly!" she responded, with a twinkle in her eye. They talked briefly about the ~~ex~~ weather. She seemed friendly enough. He was feeling bold:

"Say, you're kind of cute," he remarked, mustering up all the suavity he could find.

"Why thank you. My three sons often tell me that also..."

Fluttering to himself "Am I really that drunk?", Tech wandered off in search of some young women. After briefly approaching a couple of 14 year-olds, and catching up on all the junior high school gossip, he returned to the punch bowl. He was feeling rather ~~dee~~ depressed. This was no way to spend an evening. He continued to drain the cups of punch, trying to drown his sorrows. It was going to be another typical party. And then--

HE SAW HER!

Hear ye, hear ye! The king is dead--long live the king! His majesty Paul Gray was officially crowned this Friday, and the Institute, in a demonstration of great understanding and infinite benevolence, cancelled classes from 10am to 1pm. In recognition of this great occasion, I--the Baker House Secretary--have decided to cancel this week's version of the meeting called to order at 10:20pm in 5W lounge by the Prez.

BAKER EXECCON MEETING MINUTES' Wednesday, September 24, 1980

attendance - all but the VPFS, who was working Snack Bar

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mike - IM Tennis signups are up; sign up by Oct. 3rd.

Mark - The Baker House Execon is full of homosexuals, but performed well in rock-climbing this afternoon.

Bill - There will be a "Potter's 4" at Burton next Thursday.

Rita - Anyone interested in hosting prospective frosh, see me or Sue Berg.

Kathy Yelick - Elections for Frosh Rep, GA Reps, and Floor Social Chairpeople will be Tuesday (Sept. 30).

Brian - The October 3rd party will be whenever I decide; probably on Oct. 3rd, though.

AGENDA

1) (Approval of the minutes of the Wed Sept 17 House Meeting)

Motion by ?, Second by ? to approve said minutes Fails 4-4.

Motion by Brian, Second by Rita to approve said minutes with the following changes: "none" "Passes" 6-2-0. This vote was followed by a mass walkout, as some felt the Prez has miscounted. Tough shit (pardon my language).

2) Approval of the minutes of the Thur Sept 18 Execon Meeting

Motion by Bart, Second by Rita to approve said minutes Passes 3-1-4. Why doesn't anyone read them?

3) Motion by Nancy, ~~XX~~ Second by Sue to appropriate $700 from Piano Maintenance line item for repair bill Passes 7-0-1.

4) Motion by JG, Second by Bart to appropriate $30 from Slide Collection line item for R/O, etc. slides Passes 6-0-2. Rita performed well as temporary president while Mark talked.

5) Motion by JG, Second by Bart to appropriate $16 from Secretarial Supplies line item Passes 4-3-1.

6) Motion by Bart, Second by JG to appropriate $150 from Blender ~~xxx~~ ~~x~~ line item for a shiny, new blender Passes 7-0-1.

7) Motion by Bart, Second by JG to appropriate $50 from VPFS Misc for a House Calendar Fails 2-4-2 (amidst feelings that this was extravagant). Brian Feldman asks for a roll call vote:

Secr - Yes

SocC - Yes

VPRO - No

Tres - No

JudC - No

VPFS - absent

AthC - No

VPIR - No

Pres - No

Motion still Fails, 2-6-0.

8) Motion by JG, Second by Mike to appropriate $55 from Baker Bar line item for speed rails Passes 4-0-4.

9) Discussion of December 6th Party

This party, formerly known as the "Christmas Party", is now referred to as the "Holiday Party". Brian asked if there were any objections to the traditional format and decor (tree, Santa Claus & Elves, etc.). There were none. For now, ~~xx~~ we will continue to call it the Holiday Party.

10) Motion by JG, Second by Rita to have the next Execon Meeting on Thursday, Oct. 2 at 10:30pm in First West Lounge Passes 7-0-1.

Meeting ended at 11:20pm.

The Seduction of Tech McTool

Part 2 - The Pick-up

She was one of the most beautiful girls Tech had ever seen-- or at least he thought so in his intoxicated state. She was glancing at him--smiling! Then ~~xxx~~ she winked, nonchalantly, and motioned him over with her eyes. Tech looked around to see if maybe she was after someone else. No one. It was him for sure: Tech McTool himself. He chugged another glass of punch for courage, took a deep breath, and headed towards her.

He had some trouble walking straight, but eventually he navigated up to her and spoke:

"Hi-- My name's Tech McTool; wanna dance?"

"I'd love to," she replied as she dragged him onto the dance floor, her sensuous eyes piercing deep into his. They danced for a while and then: the slow dance. She held him tight--or was it he holding her tight? He didn't know; he didn't care...

They danced. They talked. He drank. She drank. They drank. The party was over: the moment of truth.

"Let's go to your room," she suggested.

"My roommate will be there. How about your place?"

"My father will be having people over," she answered. She paused--then said: "I know, let's go to daddy's office: I have a key." They headed out across Mass Ave into Lobby 7.

"So, your father works at M.I.T.?" Tech asked as they went down the infinite corridor. "Yes--sort of," she answered. They walked up the stairs to the second floor. Tech felt turned-on by the idea of being seduced in an MIT office. What a great story for the guys!

"We're almost there," she said. Tech was having trouble walking again.

"Here we are," she said, opening the door. "This sure is a nice office," Tech remarked. He looked up; the sign on the office slowly came into focus. At last he made out the words--

THE PRESIDENT

"What did you say your last name was?"

meeting called to order at 10:32 by "President" Geoff Kletsky in 1st West Lounge (President Radka was temporarily detained) attendance - All 9 officers plus newly-elected Frosh Rep + Sue Berg, Skam, Ed Maxwell, Julie Phoster, and a cast of thousands

Sue Berg - "Host pre-frosh"

Mike - (1) Anyone interested in being on the Octathon team or with questions about it, see me this weekend. (2) Sign up for IM
Badkgammon. (3) ComCom menu meetings will be held Thursdays at 6pm.

Brian - Tickets for RobinLane and the Chartbusters will be available soon at the desk, by decree of Nancy Greenbaum, desk captainess.

Sue (Downing) - The next Baker Letter will be out Thur Oct 16; deadline for entries is Fri Oct 10.

Ed Maxwell - Start thinking about Class Day (Saturday Oct 25).

Bill - The Snack Bar will soon have a new supply of rubber goods.

Vivian - The freshmen are happy.

...at this point President Radka returned. The VPIR was then brutally showered by the Secretary, as she was making it impossible for me to take minutes. Ms. Greenbaum left the scene of the crime to change clothes.

Mark - Anyone who wants to move to Next House, contact the Deans Office.

AGENDA

- 1) Showering of ~~xxxx~~ new Frosh Rep (Vivian Wang, Rm. 511)
Motion by Mike, Second by Bart to shower Vivian Passes 7-1-1, as the poor girl is carried to the showers. Congratulations!
- 2) Approval of the minutes of the Wed Sept 24 Execcon Meeting
Motion by Jeff, ~~xx~~ Second by Bart to approve said minutes

- 5) Motion by JG, Second by ~~xx~~ Bart to appropriate $50 from VPFS Misc for two hand saws and a combination square Passes 5-2-3.
- 6) Motion by Bart, Second by JG to appropriate $50 from VPFS Misc for a House Calendar. Motion by Nancy to table dies for lack of second. Amend by Sue, Second by Nancy to change $50 to 50¢ Fails
3-5-2. Motion Fails 4-5-1. Sue D volunteers to make a (free) House ~~xxxx~~ Calendar. R.I.P.
- 7) Discussion of Dining Hall Rental Policy
There was a problem with the recent party CSC had in the Dining Hall in that they assumed they were allowed use of the kitchen.
VPFS Kletsky volunteered to compose a statement of Rental Policy to avoid future problems.
- 8) Discussion of Freshmen housed in Ashdown
These frosh were given a ~~xx~~ letter inviting them to our parties, social events, ~~ll~~ teams, etc. This has already been done, so no action was taken.
- 9) Motion by JG, Second by Jeff to have the next Execcon Meeting on Wednesday, Oct 8 at 9:00pm in Second West Lounge Passes 7-0-3.
Meeting defunct at 11:22pm.

The Seduction of Tech McTool

Part 4 - The Morning After

Tech awoke with his head throbbing. Where was he? He slowly opened his eyes. Pain. Gradually it started to come back to him: the Ball, the girl... The girl! He sat up with difficulty and looked around. He was in The President's office, on the desk. What was he doing on the desk? He remembered climbing on top of it last night with the girl, but then what? He must have fallen asleep there. And where was the girl? And what the hell happened last night?!

The door opened and a man ~~wixxx~~ in a suit walked in. Tech thought about making a dash for it, but there was no hope. So-- this is how life ends, he thought.

"Young man, what are you doing on my desk?"

"Well, it's kind of hard... I mean....," he fumbled. Suddenly he realized: he was totally naked...

After Tech found his clothes and convinced the ~~xx~~ CP's he wasn't an assassin, the President took him into the inner office, closed the door, and began the interrogation.

"Well, son--could you please explain."

Luckily during all the confusion with the CP's and the photographers from Tech Talk who had come, Tech had thought of a story:

"You see, it was an initiation prank for my frat. They knocked me out, dragged me in here, stripped me and put me on your desk."

"How, then, do you explain the brassiere drooped over my desk?"

The questioning went on for almost an hour. As he was explaining in detail his fraternity duties, though, Tech's thoughts kept drifting back to last night. He couldn't remember what had happened! Maybe he could find her, ask her--

The President got a phone call. He talked for several minutes, then ~~xxx~~ hung up.

"Mr. McTool," he said, "I'm afraid I'm going to have to leave. That was my wife--she's in hysterics. Apparently the neighbors saw my daughter come in last night at 3 AM, wearing nothing but an old beat-up

BAKER EXECCON MEETING AGENDA

Meeting to be held Wednesday, October 8, at 9:00pm in 2nd West Lounge.

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Thur Oct 2 Execcon Meeting
- 2) Appropriation of $500 from Oktoberfest line item - Brian

Joe McTool adjusted the propellor on his beanie and walked into his dormitory. Five people keeled over, gagging as he walked by. No, he hadn't forgotten to shower that week. He had chosen not to, as he did many (often consecutive) weeks. He checked his mailbox before taking his place at the bridge table. "Oh my, it's a letter from my big brother Tech!" he exclaimed. He read on hurriedly because he wanted to leave as much time as possible for studying. "Gee, I wish I went to a party school like Tech," he remarked, molding his greasy hair back into place. "I still don't understand why ~~KX~~ Tech got so upset when I suggested we send each other messages on the computer, instead of writing letters like human beings," he said to himself.

As usual, Tech's letter told of the great times to be had at MIT. Drugs, Rock & Roll--everything a man could ask for. Tech's dorm seemed like the ~~place~~ cool place to be; Joe wished they had dorms like that at Stanford. Waterfights every night, Beer every afternoon, Sleeping late every morning--and the food was phenomenal! Joe couldn't understand how they ever got any work done. As it was, Joe had to punt all his classes just to get his homework finished. The MIT campus as Tech described ~~xx~~ it was "a thing of beauty". Expansive tracts of grass, far removed from the inner city, were adorned with magnificent contemporary sculptures. Joe hoped that he could see it one day.

The one thing, though, that Tech seemed reluctant to describe was his social life. ~~KX~~ Joe had asked Tech about this in his last letter. Now Joe eagerly read Tech's reply:

"You asked about the sex life at MIT-- As usual, your Stanford freshman naivete is showing through. Here at MIT, we have totally ~~xxx~~ eliminated the need for sex. Instead, we perform the following ritual nightly as a substitute: We all sit in a circle, dim the lights, and whip out our

Tech walked into Baker, tired after a long day of sleeping through classes. He glanced around the lobby, looking for a freshman to be shy in front of. He didn't see any, but then, something more exciting caught his eye -- a big poster, reading:

"THE FEW, THE PROUD, THE LONELY --

THE BAKER HOUSE FIRE MARSHALL."

Tech knew this was his chance to make it big in house politics, so he decided to pay a visit to the Fire Marshall, a wizened but mellow fellow.

"Come in, McTool!" said the Fire Marshall. Tech entered, stunned by the paraphernalia covering the walls and floor -- fire hats, red suspenders, rain slickers, boots, hoses, extinguishers, a hydrant where the sink should have been, and in the middle of the room, a giant water bed, rated for types A, B, and C fire.

"I want to be a Baker House Fire Warden," Tech sputtered, awestruck, "so I can have a bed just like that one!"

"Well, boy," said the Fire Marshall through his beard, "someday, you just might! (He thought to himself -- 'and you just might put it to better use than I have...') But first, you have to learn how we put out fires around here."

"Don't you use extinguishers?" Tech asked in his naivete.

"No, son," replied the Fire Marshall. "First, you drink anything you can get your hands on -- beer, wine, coffee, Orange Whippee -- and then, taking careful aim, you extinguish the fire with your probably be built IAP/ Country Kitchen will be equipped after we see what the Institute provides us with.

Secretary (John Goree): I continue to type up shit like this/ Am trying to see whether I can get a typewriter thru MIT Treasurer (Bill Flarsheim): The House Safe ~~xxx~~ is on order.
Athletic Chmn (Mike Colucci): Pool table recovered/ 36 Hockey sticks are waiting to be taped/ I'm looking for places to put the weight room and the (to be purchased) ping-pong table.
Social Chmn: I've given a few parties (JRS, in reference to the Oktoberfest: "Best Bar Mitzvah on the East Coast")/(P.S. the Social Chairman is Brian G. Feldman, Room 321)
VPRO (Rita Nothhaft): Baker Advisors are going to come over soon.
Frep (Vivian Wang): The Frosh Breakfast went well/ I'm taking over the "Host a prefrosh" program.
Prez (Mark Radka): Technique Ad is finished/ Picturebook is near completion.

THE GREAT ESCAPE

Part 1

Tech McTool looked out the window of the 727 at the ground below--New York City. They weren't stopping there, though. In fact, he wasn't sure where they were going. He turned to one of his friends in the row behind him:

"Where are we going?" he asked.

"Disneyworld."

Of course. It all started to come back to him now. Two nights ago they had been bullshitting in the lounge about how much MIT sucked, about how burned-out they were--the usual. One of the guys had suggested they all just take off for Disneyworld. They laughed at him as they always did--but then the next day he passed out plane tickets to everyone. So-- here they were.

Tech thought about all the classes he had already missed. He was supposed to be taking a midterm right about now. Then there was that problem set due tomorrow-- and the paper due next week. As long as he made it back before drop date, ~~xxxx~~ though, then everything would be fine.

"How long are we going to stay?" he asked his friend.

"Forever."

"Oh."

What would his mother say? What would his advisor say?... Who really gives a damn? He would get a job--maybe as Mickey Mouse--and settle down. He never really wanted to be an engineer anyway.

"Wake me when we get there," Tech requested. He closed his eyes and fell immediately into a deep, well-deserved sleep.

THE GREAT ESCAPE

Part 2

Tech McTool stepped off the plane to freedom. They had made it to Florida. Disneyworld wasn't far off now.

As they walked through the airport Tech was struck by the strange people that passed by. They had clean hair, and most of them wore decent clothes. Only a couple looked bleary-eyed, and those who did seemed to be suffering from hangovers rather than lack of ~~an~~ sleep. He didn't see anyone with calculators on their belts, equations on their T-shirts, or multi-colored pens in their shirt pockets. Then he sniffed--wow! No stench of body odor! Culture shock--what a concept.

The only thing that bothered Tech now was that he wasn't far enough away from MIT. People here might have heard about MIT -- that was no good. He wanted to go to a place where the idea of MIT never even entered people's heads. Paradise. Maybe he ~~am~~ would go to California--or Mars.

He decided to give Florida a chance, though. He stopped a random person and asked: "Have you heard of MIT?" The man suddenly got a wild, crazed look in his eyes and started foaming at the mouth--

"No! Stay back! No! I'm not going back--~~x~~ never! Noooo....!" he screamed in agony and then bolted away. As the man ran off Tech noticed the brass rat on his finger--a fellow escapee.

Tech and his friends walked outside to get a cab.

"Well--what do we do now?" Tech asked naively. One of his friends--who had just bought a newspaper--started laughing hysterically. He looked Tech squarely in the eye and said:

"We have to run: they're after us...." He then showed them all the headline of the newspaper:

"FIVE STUDENTS ESCAPE FROM MASSACHUSETTS INSANE ASYLUM --

THE GREAT ESCAPE

Part 3

Tech and ~~gi~~ his friends stood motionless at the exit from the airport, paralyzed by fear. They had escaped from MIT, but they weren't safe yet: the administration was after them.

After debating for a few minutes they decided they had to get the hell out of there fast. The airport was probably being watched--they could trust no one. They would try to find a cheap motel for the night, and plot their course to Mexico tomorrow. They grabbed a taxi to head into town and all piled in.

"So," the driver said as they drove down the ~~gi~~ highway, "where are you guys from?"

"He could be a spy," Tech whispered to his buddies.

"We're from Harvard," Tech lied, trying to cover their tracks.

"That's funny--you guys don't act like assholes," Good, it had worked: they had fooled him.

"In fact," the cabbie continued, "you act like horny engineers," They all shit in their pants, but the cabbie said no more. He dropped them off on a ~~xi~~ main street, pointed out a motel nearby, and took off.

Tech had an uneasy feeling as they walked down the sidewalk towards the motel. Everything seemed normal enough--there was the usual assortment of shoppers, beggars, and families out on the streets. There was even a band of Hari Krishnas, busily chanting away. They walked by the Krishnas, laughing at them...

Tech felt a pair of greasy hands grab his throat from behind. It was a trap!

"Let's get out of here!" Tech screamed; "those aren't Krishnas-- it's the men from SIPB!"

Men from SIPB!: the Students In Pursuit of Burnouts--an MIT student organization dedicated to tracking down defectors and returning them to the true path of nerddom.

Tech smacked his assailant in the face and broke loose. His friends tore free of the wimpy SIPB attackers and together they ran across the street. They were almost out of range, when the SIPB captain (or "head-hacker", as they called him) took a body-odor bomb from underneath his robe and launched it in their direction. It exploded right in front of them--

"Aaargh--a body-odor bomb!" Tech gasped in horror. The fumes overpowered him and he sank into unconsciousness.

Wow--I have room left to flame! This hasn't happened in a while.
What shall we talk about? The Holiday Party is this Saturday; even if you don't ask Lofton's mother, it would be nice to attend the setup party on Friday. These are certainly the times that try social chairmen's souls, and help setting up will be unbelievably welcome.
It's one of the few times that a large part of the dorm works to-

■ Tech awoke with that same oppressive feeling that had so often haunted him at MIT. He wasn't sure where he was, but his sixth sense told him there were nerds around--incredible nerds; he could feel it.

He looked around at his friends, still unconscious. They were in the back of a van, being taken to godknowswhere, captives of the Men from SIPB. No women--they weren't allowed in SIPB; too distracting. Their captors were up in the front of the van hacking away on the terminals installed in the dashboard. As Tech's friends began to wake up, still feeling sick from the effects of the body-odor bomb, the head-hacker came to the back of the van and addressed them, in that high nasal voice so typical of social misfits:

"You runaways are going to be returned to MIT for proper punishment," he began. "Our computers now have your records on file and we are even now using text editors to produce right-justified reports on your capture in twelve different type fonts. But before we return you to the Institute we are taking a detour to Disneyworld to catch the latest computer show."

Disneyworld! This may be our chance, Tech thought to himself. Perhaps they could overpower the nerds and escape. If only they could get close enough without being knocked out by the smell...

The van stopped. Disneyworld. The nerds ordered Tech and his friends out of the van. Thinking quickly, Tech shouted at the guards:

"Look--behind you, a new PDP-11!" The guards fell for it and turned around. Tech and his friends ran for it, the guards in pursuit. Somehow they lost themselves in the crowd, with the SIPB nerds nowhere in sight.

They were free! A fantasy world at their fingertips. No MIT, no nerds, only rides and candy and fun, fun, fun! They went crazy. After four hours they had seen or done everything except the computer show and--Space Mountain! The biggest fantasy ride of all.

"Let's go for it, ~~hm~~ guys" said Tech to his weary friends. They were exhausted, but reluctantly agreed. Tech cringed with anticipation as he handed over a ticket and scrambled into his seat. Up, up up the trolley climbed in pitch darkness, and then--whoosh! Fling through tunnels deep within the mountain, lights and images passing by...Tech knew that he was free, free forever...

The trolley climbed out of a tunnel into daylight. They were going over a river now--it seemed strangely familiar. The sky was ■ overcast and the air was suddenly cold. Something was wrong. The car plunged into darkness again, then slowed down and halted.

"Kendall-MIT" came a voice over the intercom. They looked at each other for a second, puzzled, then automatically walked out into the subway station. Kendall station--the red line.

"I don't understand" Tech said softly, as they went out the exit and began the long walk home.

Tech McTool's eyes began to close involuntarily and his head accelerated towards the floor. It met his desk on the way down, and the noise of the crash woke him up again. He felt no pain, however--he was beyond pain, beyond sensation.

He glanced at the clock: 5:00 A.M. He had been working for 47 straight hours. He wasn't sure which paper he was working on now; he was just writing. His mind had shut off many hours ago, but luckily his fingers still moved. The words on the paper danced in front of him: it was time for another Dew.

As he reached into the fridge he heard a loud, piercing scream from the hallway, followed by several more. It had begun again. Tech tried to resist, but he felt himself drawn outside his room to join them in their nightly ritual. He threw open his door, Dew in hand, and stepped out for a break.

His friends were assembled there with crazed, sleep-starved looks in their eyes. They said nothing as Tech joined them, but immediately launched into another scream. A few doors opened and sleepy heads poked out, cursed, and returned to bed. They were just wimps, anyway--what did they know about real work.

The congregation in the hall joined in silent prayer for a speedy end to the term, and then dispersed. The chatter of typewriters struck up again; Tech returned to his desk. The floor was littered with scrawled pages, but Tech wasn't sure which sheets were garbage and which were final copy. Oh well, there wasn't much difference anyway.

He crushed the Dew can with true hatred and pitched it towards the trash can. It missed, spilling a few drops of fluid over his paper on the floor. Only one thing to do--keep writing. He moved his hand across the page in front of him, so , so sleepy...

When he regained consciousness a few minutes later he discovered that his hand had kept writing while he was asleep. He commanded it to stop, then read over what it had written. It was a miracle! Tech had written a

AGENDA

- 1) Approval of the minutes of the Tue Dec 2 Execon Meeting
So moved by Coluch, So Seconded by Jeff, So Passed 8-0-1.
- 2) Approval of the minutes of the Thur Dec 4 House Meeting
So moved by Jeff, So Seconded by Coluch, So Passed 8-0-1.
- 3) Motion by Jeff, Second by Frep to appropriate $124.92 from Floor Misc for a Finals Week Floor Party Passes 6-2-1. The Chair recognizes the amount as $125 ~~fx~~ for the convenience of the Tres.
- 4) Gavel goes to Jeff; Motion by Bart, Second by JG to declare the chair vacant Passes unanimously. Gavel to Rita. Motion by JG, Second by Mark to appropriate $300 from IAP Construction for Misc building (like a mahogany ladder) Passes 8-0-1.
- 5) Motion by Jeff, Second by Bart, Third by Solof to appropriate $200 from Firewood line item for Flammable materials Passes 7-0-1, after the untimely departure of the Judcom Chairperson.
- 6) Motion by Bart, Second by Bill to appropriate $1200 from IAP Social line item for various social things Passes 7-0-1.
- 7) Election of Commons Committee (Sue D returns)
Gavel to Jeff, Motion by Mark, Second by Bill to elect the following people to ComCom: (in addition to people already on) Kathy Bindels, Tony Riccobono, Lynn Schnapp, Teresa Cichello, Diana Yoshimura, Pete Schunemann, Mark Radlauer, Raj Sinha, Liz Snyder, Laura Sznyter, Howard Reubenstein, Steve Rosenthal, John Goree, Brian Feldman, Kathy Yelick Passes 8-0-1.
- 8) Discussion of Dual Social Chairman
Question of the day: "Is the job of Social Chairman too much work for one person?" Answer: Ask any ex-Social Chairman. One suggestion (due to Mr. Radka) is to have two Social Chairman, both of whom would be on Execon. Another idea is to have a smaller (2 or 3 people) Social Committee, perhaps elected like Judcomm. These changes would require a Constitutional Amendment, which we could do before the next election. Most people agreed with the 2 Social Chairman idea, having them run together (and also making it possible for one person to run if he/she desired). More will be discussed during IAP.
- x) Motion by Bill, Second by Jeff to suspend the Bylaws to consider appropriation of $180 from End-of-term Study Breaks and $395 from Baker Bar Passes 8-0-1. Motion by Bill, Second by Coluch to do the above things Passes 5-0-4, 9-0-0, respectively (The president likes bars).
- 9) Motion by Jeff, Second by Rita to have the next Execon Meeting on Monday, January 12, 1981 at 8pm in Radka's room (636) Passes 8-0-1. Meeting adjourned at 10:27pm Kimmy - Anyone who would like to receive Client Team minutes, see me.

Frank - "We're ugly"
Sue - (1) Noon Monday is the deadline for Baker Letter entries.
 (2) TDC Sucks.
Vivian - The Freshman Breakfast will be Sunday, Nov 2 at 11am in 4W.
Prez - (1) Anyone interested in doing Baker's Technique Ad, see me
 ASAP. (2) There are too many stupid announcements.

AGENDA

- 1) Motion by Jeff, Second by Nancy to approve the minutes of the Tue Oct 21 Execcon Meeting. Ruled out of order. Motion by Nancy, Second by Jeff to approve the minutes of the Tue Oct 14 Execcon Meeting Passes 3-0-6.
- 2) Motion by Jeff, Second by Rita to approve the minutes of the Thur
Oct 16 House Meeting Passes 7-0-2.

line item for "a large House paperweight to contain money and have a combination lock" Passes 8-0-1.
- 4) Motion by Vivian, Second by Rita to appropriate $75 from VPRO Misc for the Frosh Breakfast Passes 7-1-1.
- 5) Motion by Jeff, Second by Bart to appropriate $165 from Darkroom line item for a color head for the House enlarger Passes 7-1-1.
Congratulations to Mr. Steven Meltzer from "all the guys".
- 6) Motion by Jeff, Second by Bart to appropriate $118.80 from Basketball line item for new basketballs Passes 5-0-4.
- 7) Resignation announced by the Secretary, VPFS and Judcom Chmn.
- 8) Motion by Nancy, Second by Jeff to appropriate $1200 from Holiday Party line item for an Execcon Shrine Fails 2-3-4. Jeff asks for a ~~fx~~ roll call vote:

Frep - Yeah	AthC - absent	VPIR - No
Secr - Yea	SocC - No	VPRO - Yes	Pres - No
Tres - "Fuck no"	JudC - Yes	VPFS - Yes

Motion now Passes 5-4-0. Shock reigns over Execcon. Does this mean that we really won't have a Holiday Party? Motion by Jeff, Second by Nancy to place Social Chairman Brian G. Feldman in charge of the execution of the 1st Annual Baker Execcon Shrine Passes 2-0-7. (Secretary's note: Don't be surprised if the Baker Execcon Shrine Celebration falls on the same night as the Holiday Party.)

(turn to the backside for more.....)

- 9) Discussion of the "relations" of the VPIR Motion by Jeff to suspend all "relations" of the VPIR. Mark refuses to recognize the motion.
Nancy: "I'm working on frat relations now."
Mark: "Have you phoned Upton Mass?"
- 10) Report of Standing Committees Client Team Report (by Kimmy Lennhoff): Client Team is working on coming up with new ideas for projects, to be submitted to the House. Among the ideas suggested are improving Trunk Room security, Taking ~~xx~~ inventory of Lounge Furniture and replacing lost/stolen furniture, fixing Water Fountains, etc. Anyone with great ideas please see someone on Client Team.
ComCom (alias Commons Committee) Report (by Charlie Dale): Comcom is meeting weekly with Peg to go over menus. A meeting will be held with McCormick's ComCom to discuss their "security problem" as well as the seeming disparity between the quality of our meals and theirs. Charlie would like to see more people come to ComCom meetings, particularly Frosh.
(Other standing committees, for you trivia fans, are WashCom, Parking Committee, and Room Assignments Committee. These committees did not make reports.)
- 11-13) Reports of the Sitting, Lying Down, and Squatting Committees Unfortunately no one from these committees showed up. Too Bad.
- 14) Motion by ~~KX~~ Sue, Second by Nancy to have the next Execcon Meeting on Wednesday, Oct 29 at 10:30pm in 5W Lounge Passes 7-0-2.
